WEDNESDAY . . . IF . . .

CAPE CANAVERAL (UPI) — Astronaut John H. Glenn Jr. and his 93-foot space machine were all set today for his scheduled orbital flight around the world Wednesday but weathermen were worried about rough seas in the Atlantic recovery areas.

If the seas subside and the weather is good, and Glenn and his spacecraft and rocket remain in top shape, the astronaut will leap into orbit some time between 4:30 a.m. and 9:30 a.m. PST Wednesday.

Record
Spending
Forecast

OTTAWA (CP) — An increase in federal spending to record levels was indicated today as the government put before Parliament a basic program of $6,276,241,594 in budgetary expenditures for the coming fiscal year.

The blue book of spending estimates, tabled in the Commons by Finance Minister Fleming, is just a beginning for the 1962-63 year starting April 1.

Another $736,700,000 in estimated costs of the enlarged old age pensions program will boost the basic over-all spending forecast to $7,012,911,594. Supplementary outlays as the year progresses could add many millions to that.

BASIC PROGRAM

The basic budgetary spending program compares with one of $6,123,758,182 put before Parliament in January last year for the 1961-62 fiscal year.

Old age pensions, not counted in budgetary expenditures, boosted this to $6,730,328,182 in total spending.

The increase of $282,583,412 in overall spending would be much larger if it were not for the new Dominion-provincial tax deal this year which ends tax-rental payments to the provinces. The savings on this is an estimated $278,500,000.

Boost
For Coast
Shipyards

OTTAWA — British Columbia shipyards can anticipate something of a boom as a result of the federal government's proposed shipbuilding program.

Estimates for the coming fiscal year, tabled in the Commons today, show the department of transport intends construction of a wide variety of ships, and a number of the jobs will likely go to west coast yards.

One program calls for construction of eight coast guard cutters, two for each coast and two for the Great Lakes.

Cost of the eight vessels is estimated at $4,217,000, of which $2,205,000 will be spent in the coming fiscal year.

One of the biggest jobs will be construction of two replacement weather station ships for the west coast, replacing the Stonetown and St. Catharines.

Estimated total cost of the two ships is $18,000,000. An estimated $4,800,000 will be spent in the coming year.

In addition Royal Canadian Navy plans letting contracts for six destroyer escorts, of the repeat Restigouche class.

Each DE costs an estimated $22,000,000, excluding armament.

Canada-U.S. Merger
On Way Says Weekly

WASHINGTON (CP) — The U.S. News and World Report magazine says a merger between Canada and the United States "is quietly moving into the realm of serious attention."

"Many businessmen in Canada predict privately that there will be full economic union with the U.S. within 10 years," the weekly American publication says in its current issue.

Lakes 7 Feet Deep
Flood Los Angeles

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Southern California's sixth day of saturation started spectacularly today as cloudbursts opened up on parts of the Los Angeles area, creating lakes up to seven feet deep.

There were floods in the Hollywood Hills and one house was torn loose from its foundation and driven into the street.

A mudslide loosened by the rain crashed into two homes, killing a nine-year-old boy and an infant. The slides were among hundreds on Southern California slopes during the weekend.

Damage to property soared into the millions.

Storm drain covers popped open from excessive pressure in many parts of the city. At the intersection of Sunset Boulevard and Pacific Coast Highway this morning the water was seven feet deep.

It was four feet deep on Vermont Avenue between 88th and 90th Streets in Los Angeles. It covered the rooftops of automobiles at some other points.

The police flood control office said all major streets in the Hollywood area were awash.

More than 20 deaths had been attributed to the storm, one of the heaviest in the area's history, before today's downpour.

Nearly eight inches of rain had fallen in Los Angeles since the storm started last Wednesday.

Sevigny Makes Apology
For 'Communist' Remarks

(Times News Service)
OTTAWA — Associate Defence Minister Pierre Sevigny today apologized to the governments of Ecuador and British Guiana for calling them communist.

Sevigny said in the Commons he had been misinformed about the two governments when he termed them communist during a speech last week in Montreal.

"I have since been satisfied that the government of those two countries are not communist," he said. "I am glad to correct my statement."

"I guess maybe I was a little out of line," he said.

Mr. Sevigny also said he wished to stress that in referring to the threat of Communism in Far Eastern countries he meant only the military threat posed by Communist China.

NERVOUS

The 44-year-old minister appeared nervous and fidgeted with his prepared statement as he awaited an opportunity to rise and make the apology.

An informant said earlier today that Mr. Sevigny was questioned by Prime Minister Diefenbaker who was angered at Mr. Sevigny's references to the two countries as Communist-governed and to reports that Mr. Sevigny had said the "yellow peril" is one of the greatest threats to Western civilization.

It is understood that Mr. Diefenbaker instructed him to make an apology.

There were also reports circulating that Ecuador was planning a formal protest to Canada, but these could not be substantiated.

Sevigny, in an address to a group of architects, had said

last Thursday: "We see a Black Africa fired up by Communist propaganda, a South America where, in just the past six months, Communist governments have taken over British Guiana and Ecuador."

Sevigny, a Second World War hero who lost a leg in battle, is the cabinet's staunchest advocate of Canadian membership in the organization of American states.

GANGSTER SUSPECT CHARGED

TORONTO (CP) — Ronald Turpin, 28, of Toronto, was charged with capital murder today after a policeman was killed by gunfire on an east end street.

Const. Fred Nash, 34, was shot at close range while making a routine check of a driver's licence. He was shot twice more as he lay wounded on the ground.

Turpin underwent an emergency operation after being shot in the arm and neck. The shooting occurred asling from Ontario to British

COLUMBIA

'Exports
Not Issue'
— Fulton

OTTAWA (CP) — The question of exporting Canadian hydro power is "quite distinct" from disposal of Canada's share of Columbia River under the treaty with the United States, Justice Minister Fulton said today.

Canada's national energy policy contemplates export of power including hydro: "if it is genuinely surplus," he added. In fact, the National Energy Board approved nine hydro licences in 1961.

Mr. Fulton was replying in a statement to remarks attributed to Toronto economist Walter Gordon at Vancouver Saturday. (See page 3.)

Mr. Fulton said it was false to assume the government had a policy of no exports of hydro. It was incorrect to assume that the Columbia's "unique block of very low-cost power" from American generators was an export commodity.

By treaty terms, it was supposed to come back to Canada to serve Canadian needs.

Mr. Fulton also accused Mr. Gordon of "several gross misrepresentations."

The U.S. would spend some $170,000,000 to utilize the full benefit of the Columbia development plan, Mr. Fulton said.

Canada would not have to spend $100,000,000 in transmission lines to get its share of American power because "the treaty obliges the U.S. to deliver our share of the power free of charge at the border."

The $458,000,000 cost of the initial Canadian program includes $344,000,000 for the three dams plus additional expenditure on transmission lines to get the power from the American border to its destination—or load centres.

COLLAPSES

Policeman's
Shot Scares
Gunman

VANCOUVER (CP) — A city policeman early today ignored a gunman's command to drop his weapon and instead fired it in the air.

The gunman dropped his gun and collapsed, apparently thinking himself shot. He lay on the ground moaning and holding his stomach. But at hospital it was found his only injuries were superficial ones.

Constable David Roberts handcuffed the man. Another man was taken into custody in the early morning incident that sent 14 police cars to a Kingsway sporting goods store after reports men were on the roof.

CAREER OFFICER NAMED
AMBASSADOR TO U.S.

OTTAWA (CP) — Appointment of Charles Ritchie, a career diplomatic officer, as Canadian ambassador in Washington, was announced today in the Commons by Prime Minister Diefenbaker.

Mr. Ritchie has been permanent representative to the United Nations since 1957.

He will succeed A. D. P. Heeney, who served two tours there as Canadian ambassador in Washington.

CONDITION 'SATISFACTORY'

Charles Rushed
To Hospital;
Loses Appendix

LONDON (Reuters) — Queen Elizabeth today visited her 13-year-old son Prince Charles who was recovering from a successful emergency appendectomy at a London hospital.

Cries of "tell him to get well soon" greeted the Queen from a crowd of some 200 assembled at the hospital gates.

Elizabeth smiled and waved at the well-wishers.

She was taken to her son's private ward, where he was sitting up in bed.

Charles was operated on at 2 a.m. after a 58-mile dash to London from his school at Cheam in Berkshire.

He spent the night in a private ward of London's Hospital for Sick Children, attended by two nurses, after his appendix was removed by Dr. David Waterson.

The Queen authorized the operation by telephone from Windsor Castle.

FATHER NOTIFIED

The prince's father, the Duke of Edinburgh, was notified by cable at Caracas, Venezuela, and was expected to continue his current South American tour.

Charles complained of feeling ill Sunday morning after chapel at Cheam.

The Cheam school physician, Dr. Basil Phillips, diagnosed appendicitis and the Queen was notified.

The Queen's pediatrician, Sir Wilfred Sheldon, 66, rushed to the school from his home and a surgeon at Newbury District Hospital near the school, Dr. John Joyce, was called in.

ACCOMPANIED PRINCE

The three doctors accompanied the prince as he was taken to London by ambulance with a police escort, arriving at the hospital shortly after midnight.

Five doctors signed a medical bulletin early today.

"His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales underwent an operation for acute appendicitis early this morning. His condition is satisfactory."

Centennial Flashback . . .

THIS DAY IN VICTORIA - 1862

FEBRUARY 12
Uneasy concern was rife throughout the town over the plight of nine residents of Port Townsend, believed shanghaied aboard the British ship True Briton. Reports from across the strait say the men, all highly-respected citizens, were lured aboard under the pretext of working the ship to Victoria, where they were to be paid off.

But it is believed the True Briton is heading direct for Honolulu, in the Sandwich Islands.

James A. McCrea was chosen treasurer of the fire department. He succeeds the late William Walls.

A rumor circulated about gold findings on a creek emptying into the ocean about 30 miles south of Cape Flattery, but was not strong enough to start a gold rush.

ROUND-A-BOUT

By DOUGLAS HILLSIDE

In response to a plea made by Dr. Lotta Hitschinova when she was in Victoria in December, students of Grades 7, 8 and 9, at Oak Bay Junior High School, have collected 4 1/2 gallons of buttons, 304 spools of thread, 263 needles, 238 good clean garments, 15 pairs of children's sturdy shoes and many balls of wool that will be sent from the Unitarian Service Committee depot here for distribution to people who do not have these necessities in other parts of the world.

It's a thought, for other students in other schools. The need is great for all these so-called simple things. Further information may be obtained from Mrs. Eric Dowell, chairman of the work group in Victoria, GR 7-1061.

Canadian National's luxury liner, Ss Prince George, will act as a floating hotel for six trips of three and four days' duration between Vancouver and the Seattle World's Fair.

Her last voyage will terminate in Vancouver May 11. She will then resume Inside Passage service north to Alaska. For the World's Fair junkets accommodation will be for 250 persons.

According to Western Air Lines, who transport them, Yo-Yo's are once again capturing the imagination of young America.

In the past six weeks, for example, the air lines has carried 45 tons of Yo-Yo's from Minneapolis to Los Angeles and San Francisco markets.

Mrs. Ann Lang, 2077 Oak Bay Avenue, was busy the other day preparing the family dinner when the knife slipped and cut her finger. She decided to go to the hospital to have it looked at.

So he carefully wraps it in his handkerchief and dashes off to the Royal Jubilee Hospital to see if it can be stitched on to mother's hand again.

Only to be told when he gets there that his precious cargo is a piece of lamb kidney.

and tax revenues will go down by a corresponding possibly greater amount as the province begins levying their own personal and corporation income taxes under the new deal.

Today's blue book lays the foundation for Mr. Fleming's budget speech—the statement of government tax and financial policy which will come before or after the next election. The finance minister hasn't said when it will be.

In his last budget speech June 20, Mr. Fleming forecast actual spending of $7,021,570,000 including old age pensions.

$10 PENSION INCREASE

The pensions, paid to all aged 70 and over, aren't included in the estimates of budgetary expenditures. With the new $10 increase to $65 a month, combined with increased numbers of pensioners, Health Minister Monteith estimated last week the program's cost will rise to $736,700,000 next fiscal year from $623,300,000.

DEFENCE SPENDING

The defence department budget—largest single item at $1,675,792,175—is up $60,155,023 from a year ago. However, it is down $5,844,977 when an additional $36,000,000 in supplementary estimates for the current year is considered. Main cause of the decline is a reduction in the CF-104 aircraft program.

Fly-In Switched From Comox To Tofino

Annual summer "fly-in" of the Aero Club of B.C. will be held this year at Comox instead of Tofino.

Prevailing bad weather and inadequate facilities at Long Beach, on the west coast of the Island between Ucluelet and Tofino, forced the change.

A feature of the Long Beach trip, usually in July, was a fresh crab feast provided by Tofino Chamber of Commerce. Barney Dunlevy, manager of Comox Flying Club, which will make arrangements for the visit, said Comox has adequate landing facilities, beaches and sea food supplies.

As many as 700 persons attended the Tofino affairs and close to 100 aircraft, including large chartered passenger planes.

Overflow Forum on Cancer To Bring Repeat in April

By ELIZABETH FORBES
Times Women's Editor

Curiosity, fear and an earnest desire for knowledge motivated hundreds of women who crowded the Odeon Theatre Sunday afternoon for a forum on cancer of the cervix, sponsored by Victoria Daily Times and the Victoria Unit of the Canadian Cancer Society.

They started to form a queue two hours before the meeting and soon the line extended from the theatre to the Public Library along Blanshard and down Johnson toward Douglas.

When the doors opened the 147 seats in the theatre were quickly filled. More than 200 were turned away.

REPEAT IN APRIL

Mrs. P. E. Corby, chairman of the women's education committee of the Victoria Unit, said the forum will be repeated in April.

A fifth Time and Two Women opened the forum. Case histories were depicted of a woman who "waited too long" and of another woman who, through regular check-ups, discovered she had cervix cancer in its earliest stages. It was pointed out there is no cure for cancer of the cervix when this type of growth is discovered early and only 50 per cent when discovered in later stages.

A discussion period followed, with a panel of four doctors, answering questions submitted in writing by members of the audience and collected and sorted by uniformed nurses from St. Joseph's and Royal Jubilee Hospitals.

Panel moderator was Dr. H. M. Edmison, Jubilee radiologist and vice-president of the Victoria cancer unit. Those taking part were Dr. H. K. Fidler, Vancouver, specialist in pathology and bacteriology and director of the cytology laboratory of the B.C. Cancer Institute; Dr. David Boyes, Vancouver, specialist in obstetrics and gynaecology; Dr. Arthur B. Nash, Victoria, specialist in obstetrics and gynaecology; and Dr. D. B. Roxburgh, Victoria, specialist in pathology and bacteriology.

More than 200 were turned away. Another forum has been scheduled at a date to be set in April.

Roxburgh, Victoria, specialist in pathology and bacteriology. Some points brought out in this short question period were:

• Women between the ages of 40 and 50 are the ones most likely to develop cancer of the cervix, although it has been known to appear in teen-age girls.

• Cancer of the cervix will have no effect on an unborn child. It is not a contagious disease.

• This type of tumor could grow for a long time, and the person would feel quite well and have no special symptoms. A good reason in favor of yearly tests.

• Cervix cancer is more prevalent in women who have borne children and in women who have started their families at an early age.

There is no satisfactory blood test for cancer. If cervix cancer is discovered early it could mean only a local excision and not a major operation.

Simple uterine tests that detect cancer of the cervix in women can be made by any family doctor right in Victoria. These tests are sent to the cytology laboratory of the cancer institute at Vancouver for diagnosis.

1,055 Students At Blood Clinic
A total of 1,055 men and women or 66.6 per cent of the student body turned out Thursday and Friday to give blood in a Red Cross clinic at Victoria College.

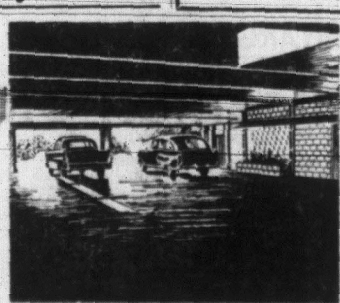

The College is competing with 16 others across Canada in a competition to give the "Corpuscle Cup" to the institution turning out the greatest percentage of students.

Women students of the arts and sciences faculty won the "Bucky's Mixture" with a 76 per cent turnout, followed by men of the same faculty with 65 per cent.

Women education students topped the men 64 to 50 per cent.

Once upon a time there was a housewife who nearly always felt tired out! She didn't rest well—and she had such a backache she could hardly do her housework.

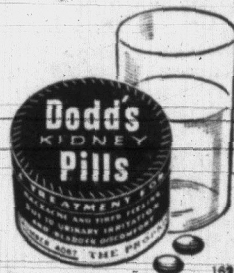

Then one day she read where such discomfort may be caused by the kidneys.

She learned that if the kidneys become sluggish they permit impurities to remain in the system causing bladder and urinary irritation. Backache, tired-out feeling and disturbed rest often follow.

Then she discovered (as many other men and women had) that Dodd's Kidney Pills were developed to help bring relief from just such conditions.

Lucky Lady! For thanks to Dodd's she found relief from backache and that tired-out feeling.

Diagnosis of Brucellosis

I am beginning again to get questions about "chronic brucellosis." Brucellosis is the "abortion fever" of cattle and hogs.

Years ago, to diagnose it in neurotic women was very fashionable, and hence I used to see many women who came in, delighted because at last some doctor had freed them from the indignity of being told all the time that their troubles were due purely to nerves. The only trouble was that much treatment for brucellosis had not done them any good. In practically all of these cases I have grave doubts about the diagnosis.

Alvarez

Often the woman said she had been ailing for much of her life, and I doubted if any infection could have lasted that long. Also, in many cases the symptoms were typically those of an overly sensitive woman with "the habit of illness," and the love of being operated on. Often she said she had wondered a bit when she found that practically all of the patients of her new doctor, sitting in his waiting-room, were being treated for brucellosis. This suggested that he was decidedly a faddist.

In scores of these cases I had our expert bacteriologists at the Mayo Clinic check the patient for so-called agglutinins in the blood, and they would report that they couldn't find any signs to warrant the diagnosis of brucellosis. Another strong objection to the diagnosis was that the patient was a woman who had been brought up in a big city where she had never even seen a cow or a pig, and had drunk only pasteurized milk.

Where, then, could she have gotten the infection? Actually, acute brucellosis is largely a disease of farmers and other men who handle cattle and hogs. It is a disease of slaughterhouse employees, and it is common among veterinarians. About the only case of acute brucellosis I can remember having seen was that of a young farmer who said that after his cow had had her calf, and the afterbirth hadn't come away, he had reached in and loosened it and pulled it out. Unfortunately, at the time, he had a cut on his hand, and so he soon had an acute fever which was almost certainly due to brucellosis. He soon recovered entirely.

It is an interesting fact that even on a farm, the women-folk seldom get brucellosis. It is the farmer and his hired men who get it, because they handle the animals that have the disease.

In one of the recent numbers of the Journal of the AMA, Dr. Wesley W. Spink, perhaps the outstanding expert in the U.S. on this disease, said that "Chronic brucellosis does occur, but too frequently such a diagnosis remains in doubt because of questionable supporting clinical and laboratory data." In other words, there is no laboratory evidence to support the diagnosis, and the symptoms are not typically those of brucellosis.

I am happy to say that the fad of diagnosing brucellosis has largely faded out so that today I seldom hear of it. All fashionable diseases tend to disappear after a while. Today the fashionable one is "chronic diverticulitis"—a disease which I am not sure exists. Of late the fad of a low blood sugar is being brought back to life. As I have said, a very busy doctor with 20 people still in his reception room at 4 o'clock must have a fashionable disease with which to get a talkative woman quickly out of the place. To try to explain to her how she could be so ill just because of nerves would take an hour, and then the woman might go out angry!

Recently, the Journal of the AMA published an address given by Dr. Stephen Rothman, of Chicago, before the Society of Cosmetic Chemists. The doctor told his hearers that as chairman of the Committee on Cosmetics, he was opposed to the putting of strong drugs, such as sex hormones, into facial creams. When this is done, no one can know how much of the drug the woman gets into her body. Also, after much study, he is not convinced that the presence of these drugs in facial creams can take away wrinkles and can add to the woman's good looks.

For a while there was much excitement over what the "royal jelly" of bees could do for women. Then Dr. A. J. Lehman, of the Food and Drug Administration, in Washington, made a study which left him with the conviction that the jelly had no effect on the human skin. Today there are acne lotions on the market which usually contain the same sulfur and resorcin which skin specialists commonly use, but Dr. Rothman thinks their strength should be adjusted to the needs of the individual patient by a skin specialist. Sometimes a person with poor kidneys cannot tolerate resorcin. Some people buy hormones designed to darken gray hair, but Dr. Rothman says that he knows of no vitamin or other drug that will do this.

HOME GARDEN

By JACK BEASTALL

Wait! Don't Start Pruning Yet

A few new leaf growths unfolding on the roses, or even a rose bud forming on a bush, which have maintained more or less continuous growth, is no reason to start pruning.

Pruning in this area is done from mid-March until mid-April in the average season, the exact date depending on the location of the garden in respect to salt water.

This locally recognized pruning period has been determined by rose growers with long experience in this climate, and there is good reasoning behind it.

First, rose bushes always open the top growth buds when air temperatures are suitable. That is happening now, as it did in early January.

Second, this young growth will not stand low temperatures. In areas where the low readings for January were from 14 degrees to 20 degrees below zero, the growth in early January was killed. The same can happen during February.

Third, the loss of these precocious growths on unpruned bushes is no detriment since they would be removed at pruning time. But on pruned bushes with only a few growth buds left, a couple of mild spells followed by cold spells could mean the loss of all growths needed for this year's flowers.

As long as the top growth buds are developing, the lower ones are safe. If the tops are pruned the lower buds will be stimulated into growth, and that is something we try to prevent.

The flower buds forming now may be left or removed as the gardener desires. I remove early buds because they seldom develop in my locality and it seems a shame to waste the plant's energy.

Rose pruning demonstrations will be held in March, and after that is soon enough for home garden pruning.

Jungle Fighters Set to Move In

DUTCH COOL TO PROPOSAL

THE HAGUE (Reuters)—Indonesia was reported today to have put forward fresh and comparatively moderate proposals for settling the dispute over Dutch-ruled West New Guinea.

But Premier Jan de Quay is reported to have given a cool reception to the proposals, put forward by high-ranking Indonesian diplomats in Bonn, West Germany.

Kenyatta In London For Parley

LONDON (Reuters)—Kenya's Negro nationalist leader, Jomo (Burning Spear) Kenyatta, flew into London Sunday and expressed "great confidence" for the success of a constitutional conference on the British colony opening here Wednesday.

Gesturing with a silver-handled fly whisk, his recognized "trade mark," Kenyatta told reporters: "We believe that the British government will be willing to name the date of our independence as this year."

"We believe that delaying it is no good, either to the British government or to us."

Despite calls by Kenyatta and other African leaders for independence this year, observers here do not expect the British government to hand over complete powers to the Africans in 1962.

JAKARTA (AP)—About 10,000 trained volunteers moved into eastern Indonesia Sunday, probably for infiltration into disputed West New Guinea.

Some were believed to be Indonesians from Sumatra who once fought President Sukarno in an uprising in the outer islands against the strict economic controls imposed from Jakarta.

Skilled in the type of jungle warfare required in the wilds of Dutch-held New Guinea, about 10,000 of these erstwhile rebels have asked to be sent to the east to fight the Dutch. An army announcement said the volunteers sailed from Jakarta Saturday.

"The volunteers will 'be given duties in the military fields to execute President Sukarno's commands on West Irian West New Guinea,' an army spokesman said.

These commands are to plant Indonesia's red and white flag on West New Guinea, claimed by Indonesia ever since it won independence from The Netherlands in 1949.

Canada as 'Empire Leader' Hoped by Beaverbrook

LONDON (Reuters)—Lord Beaverbrook, Canadian-born publisher of The Daily Express, denounced Britain's proposed entry into the European Common Market Sunday and said that if the struggle against it is lost "our last hope is that Canada may be willing to take up the leadership of the Empire."

Beaverbrook made a front-page statement in The Sunday Express, the companion newspaper he founded while building up The Daily Express to its present circulation of 4,300,000.

"For half a century I and others more powerful have tried to persuade the Conservative Party to make a Common Market of the British Empire," he said. "The plan came to be known as Empire free trade."

"Many concessions to one or another dominion would have been necessary, but less than the British government now seeks from the European Common Market."

REJECTED IDEA
"Our plan involved a tax on imports of foreign food while Empire food entered the market free of duty. The Tories turned us down because they said the plan involved a 'stomach tax'."

"Now the same party is seeking a Common Market."

Truck Driver Drops Dead

A Vancouver truck driver collapsed and died Friday shortly after helping unload his vehicle outside a Wharf Street store.

George Shadin, 43, of 1225 Nootka, was dead on arrival at St. Joseph's Hospital.

Police said he was employed by Bruce Cartage of Vancouver and had just completed a long-distance delivery haul to Victoria.

He was unmarried.

CD Course Set For 40 Doctors

Forty B.C. doctors and dentists are scheduled to attend a four-day course in civil defence orientation at provincial training headquarters, Keating Cross Road, opening Feb. 19.

Health Minister Eric Martin will open the course and speakers will include Victoria medical health officer, Dr. J. L. M. Whitbread and federal emergency health services director Dr. A. C. Hardman.

The last day of the course doctors will see a demonstration of an advance treatment centre which will be established in Lansdowne Junior High School.

The Chinese colonists "exercised a far-reaching influence on the natives of North America," according to the magazine.

It cited archeological evidence to support its claim and says that excavations in Mexico and Canada provide the most clues.

One of the most significant discoveries, it said, was made in 1923, at Teotihuacan, about 27 miles north of Mexico City.

Excavations of a tower there uncovered hieroglyphic carvings and a Peking government official who visited the site recently identified three Chinese characters "sun," "eye" and "city" from the hieroglyphs.

Archeologists also have found old Chinese coins, bricks, carvings and tablets over-with Han Chinese inscriptions in Mexico, money used in China about 1,000 years ago in Ecuador and a stone tablet with Chinese characters in Peru, the publication said.

To the north, on the Atlantic coast of Canada, they found some early Chinese character forms carved on a stone pillar.

They're buying oil energy for 6¢ a pound

Six and one-tenth cents a pound. That's the average price motorists throughout British Columbia pay for Esso gasoline. Compared with other commodities in everyday use, you won't find a better bargain. Milk, for example, sells on the average for 9½ cents a pound; soft drinks for 12½ cents a pound; even distilled water costs more than gasoline. The Esso gasoline you buy today at a bargain price is much more powerful than it was ten years ago... yet on the average Imperial gets less for it in B.C. than it did ten years ago. And of the 6½ cents you pay for gasoline in B.C., two cents is for federal and provincial taxes that bring you such things as social services and new highways. Pound for pound, you won't find a better bargain than Esso.

WAS COLUMBUS BEATEN TO IT?

Here First, Chinese Claim

By HO CHANG PANG
HONG KONG (Reuters)—The Chinese Communists have claimed that all of North America was once a Chinese colony.

A recent issue of the magazine China Youth said the Chinese settled in North America following their discovery of the continent 1,000 years before the voyages of Columbus.

The Chinese colonists "exercised a far-reaching influence on the natives of North America," according to the magazine.

It cited archeological evidence to support its claim and says that excavations in Mex-

'BACK HOME' BEHIND PRISON BARS

STILLWATER, Minn. (AP) — Frank Novak is back "home" in prison again at the age of 80. He found he couldn't adjust to the outside world after spending more than 50 years behind bars. Officials at Stillwater Prison said Novak, sentenced for murder in 1910, was "totally unhappy" and asked to be taken back.

TWISTERS UP TO DATE? NOT BY 1,500 YEARS

OTTAWA (CP) — Who says the twist is new? The latest weekly bulletin of the University of Ottawa students' chaplaincy dates it back at least 1,500 years. Under the Latin heading Nihil Novi sub Sole (there's nothing new under the sun) it carries this quotation from St. John Chrysostom, written in the year 390: "Dancing women roll their eyes, wave their hands and describe circles with their feet; they twist their whole body and the beholder goes home with the impression of this image . . ."

PANEL AGREES

Smooth Changeover For Grade 7 Pupils

By IAIN HUNTER
Victoria pupils and teachers in elementary schools can take any difficulties which the return of Grade 7 from junior high schools might cause.

This was the consensus at a discussion session entitled "Plus (or Minus)" at Greater Victoria Teachers' Association convention in Victoria High School on Friday.

Following recommendations of the Chant report on education, what was previously the first grade of junior high school is returned to the elementary schools, and all Grade 7 pupils will be required to write a government exam before going into secondary school.

BRITISH SYSTEM

The title refers to the controversial "11 Plus" exam in Britain which all school children are required to write at 11 years of age.

The British exam has been criticized as being too final and "brutal" as it channels off the pupils into set education streams—technical or university—without, it is claimed, a chance of their changing from one to the other. This is felt to have had a detrimental psychological and emotional effect on pupils in that country.

NOT SO HARSH

Victoria teachers, however, feel that the local exams will not be as harsh. Besides the government Grade 7 exam in March or April, pupils still will write exams in June set by the individual schools, according to the leader of Friday's discussions, Desmond Cavin, of Wilfrid School.

"It appears that the schools will still have some say in the matter," he said.

Mr. Cavin also said that some teachers feared that instruction in Grade 7 might be directed only to these government exams.

Joint Parks Action Urged

Amalgamation of a metropolitan form of government for the Greater Victoria area is necessary, for the proper development of the Saanich Peninsula, Reeve Stanley Murphy told a luncheon meeting of Greater Victoria teachers Saturday.

The reeve, himself a teacher, said some community problems facing the area are too great for individual municipalities to solve alone. He mentioned as an example the acquisition of parklands on the Saanich Peninsula.

Individual municipalities on the peninsula cannot afford the cost of parkland which will be needed by future generations, he said. "If there are to be any additional parks, there must be a recognition of an area-wide responsibility to secure them now," he said. "This is another case of the need for amalgamation."

He felt it would be "futile" to take the park problem to the intermunicipal committee.

Borneo Leader Speaks Here On Saturday

Anthony Brooke, Rajah Muda of the state of Sarawak in northwest Borneo, will speak on "The Individual and World Peace" at a public meeting sponsored by the Victoria organization of the Voice of Women on Saturday.

The meeting will be held in the auditorium of Sir James Douglas School at 8 p.m.

Mr. Brooke is a direct descendant of James Brooke who became Rajah of Sarawak in 1841. Sarawak was ruled by three successive generations of the Brooke family.

The territory became a British crown colony in controversial circumstances in 1946 when Mr. Brooke opposed transfer of Sarawak to Britain by his uncle, Sir Charles Vyner Brooke, on the ground that this was unconstitutional.

Mr. Brooke is now on a world lecture tour with the object of "promoting peace and international understanding."

Film Wednesday On Flemish Art

A feature-length film in color on Flemish art of the 15th and 16th centuries will be shown at the Art Gallery of Greater Victoria on Wednesday at 8:30 p.m.

"The Golden Age of Flemish Painting" was recently awarded the grand prize at the Venice Film Festival.

It deals with the life and work of such leading masters as Van Eyck, Van der Weyden, Memling and Bruegel. The film is considered the masterpiece of the Belgian director, Paul Haesaerts. The program will be open to the public.

Heart Fund Drive

Donations to the Vancouver Island Heart Fund campaign have topped $2,000 after the first week.

Target for the appeal, which is being conducted by mail and door-to-door canvass, is $25,000. But chairman, Robert McKenzie said "we certainly aren't going to complain if more than that amount is raised."

The 1961 campaign was over-subscribed by $3,000.

Headquarters for the fund is Room 221, Yarrow Building, 625 Fort Street. Donations may be sent there or left at any branch of a chartered bank.

B.C. FINAL TUESDAY

Big Names Back On Curling Scene

Three big names dominate the chase for 1962 men's curling championships in the four western provinces.

First is Ernie Richardson, of Regina, Canadian champion in 1959 and 1960, who Saturday earned the right to return for a third crack at the Canadian men's curling championships, which this year will be held at Kitchener, Ont.

Richardson's all-in-the-family rink, with cousin Arnold at third, brother Garnet at second and another cousin, Wes, at lead, won the Saskatchewan title Saturday with 8-7 and 10-3 victories over Merv Mann, of Saskatoon.

GERVAIS WINS
Lee Gervais, the potato farmer from St. Albert, Alta., who last year won the Canadian and world championships, is back in the Alberta championship playoff after defeating three-time Canadian champion Matt Baldwin, of Edmonton, 10-6 and 5-4 Saturday, to win the Northern Alberta crown.

The Alberta playoff starts next weekend in Calgary with Gervais, southern Alberta champion Jimmy Smith, of Calgary, Peace River zone champion Matt Kmet, of Dawson Creek, B.C., and a champion's rink from the Northwest Territories participating.

STONE, TOO!
The third well-known curling name is that of Reg Stone, of Trail, five-time British Columbia champion.

Stone will be after his sixth provincial crown on Tuesday when he starts a best-of-three series with Howie Christopher, of Vancouver.

The Stone rink advanced to the provincial playoff for a record sixth time by defeating Eric Bisgrove, of Kimberley, 11-5 Saturday, in a sudden-death game for the British Columbia Curling Association title.

The Manitoba curling scene is currently clustered with 19 rinks. The 19, including the 1961 provincial champion John David Lyon, of Winnipeg, start a week-long competition today to decide the Manitoba title.

Victorians Dominate Junior Shuttle Events

VANCOUVER—Victoria juniors sparked in the B.C. badminton championships at Vancouver on the weekend but the city's seniors found the winning road rough and rocky.

Judy Humber defeated Alison Daysmith for the junior girls' singles title in an all-Victoria match. They then teamed up to beat the Victoria tandem of Diana Godfrey and Margo Izard in junior girls' doubles.

Miss Godfrey and Ed Patterson of Vancouver captured the junior mixed doubles crown.

Victoria's Bob Hunt bowed 35-5, 15-3 to Wayne Macdonnell of Vancouver, Canada's top-ranked player, in the men's singles. Macdonnell had just returned from San Diego where he beat the second-seeded U.S. player, Bill Berry, and third-ranked Rod Starky before losing in the final to Jim Poole, rated No. 1 in the U.S.

Vancouver's Sharon Whittaker teamed Tina Barinaga of Port Angeles, United States' girls' badminton champion, 11-2, 11-2, in the women's singles. Miss Whittaker is fourth-seeded in Canada. However, Miss Barinaga, 15, was competing in senior competition against Miss Whittaker.

The latter, paired with Maureen Gray of Victoria, lost the women's doubles, 15-6, 15-10, to Jean Bardsley and Clair Lovett of Vancouver.

Macdonnell and Bert Ferguson beat Rolf and Ed Patterson 15-10, 15-12 in an all-Vancouver men's doubles final.

SETS WORLD MARK BUT LACKS FUNDS

Canuck Ace May Quit

HAMAR, Norway (CP)—Paul Enock of Toronto, a 27-year-old goldsmith who sold all his furniture to finance a trip to Europe so he could train properly, has eclipsed the 3,000-metre world speedskating mark. But a technicality may keep his time out of the record book.

Enock bettered the world standard of Hamar Lowland rink Saturday with a clocking of four minutes, 37.2 seconds. The recognized record of 4:40.2 was set by Anton Hufkens of Holland at Davos, Switzerland, in 1953.

Kenyon, By One Pin Takes Tenpin Throne

A 43-handicap bowler beat the best in the city Saturday and Sunday to win the Victoria tenpin singles championship by a single pin.

Ken Kenyon shot a 545, added 129 pins handicap, and finished with 674. In second place, an agonizing pin behind, was Ron Greene. He fired a brilliant 628 scratch—best of the tournament—but had to settle for 673. Greene had 45 pins handicap.

Tom Newbegin, shooting the tourney's high single of 247, finished third with 591-66-637. The tandem of Yulce Leong and Pinky Mar rattled off 1,161-180-1,281 to capture the doubles championship. Second place went to Len Murrant and Bruce McDermid, who finished with 1,195-66-1,261. Paul Morneau and B. Curry had 1,053-183-1,236 for third place.

Roy Begg toppled 1,740 pins to win the all-events scratch. Clyde Bogle with 1,701, and Molly Mays, 1,699, were second and third, respectively.

W. Sanderson was all-events handicap king with 1,623-370-1,893. Tom Nute followed with 1,730-408-1,838 and P. May was third with 1,485-351-1,836.

United Torpedoed But Ferry Missed

Top Turnout in 12 Years Sees Firemen Claim Cup

United 2, Firefighters 5

By ERNIE FEDORUK

VANCOUVER—In one respect, Wallace Milligan was lucky.

Nobody torpedoed the ferry that carried the Victoria manager and his United players to and from the mainland for the Pacific Coast League's Anderson Cup final.

Just about everything else happened Sunday. United's bubble burst and in rapid-fire order, these were some of the things that caused the seething Scot to roll his r's fast and furiously Sunday night:

• Firefighters beat United 5-2, thereby keeping the Anderson Cup on the mainland once again.

• In the process, United came up with its poorest performance of the season before the largest PCSL crowd to see a match in 12 years.

• PCSL executives again played a form of "footsie" with their loose-running schedule.

And on top of all those "insults," injury was almost added when a Firefighters' player tossed a punch at Milligan.

It just wasn't Milligan's day. Nor Barry Sadler's.

The five goals scored against the 19-year-old United goalkeeper in Sunday's final at Callister Park is three more than he has allowed in any other single game this year.

Centre forward Jim Blundell, with three goals, and inside right Eddie Bak, with two, caught Sadler on one of his off days. So, too, did 3,709 fans.

'They've Asked Firefighters ...'

"That's what hurts me most," said Milligan, "that we played so poorly before such a turnout."

"There's no use offering excuses, because the boys were not up to par."

League executives added to Milligan's dismay in dealing with the matter of next Saturday's game.

"It's a great state of affairs," suggests Milligan, "we were told Saturday that the game next weekend would be against St. Andrews. Sunday, they told me it won't be St. Andrews. They've asked Firefighters. Firefighters are supposed to let them (the league officers) know today."

"It's a farce. We've got more organization in Victoria in six months than they've had in Vancouver in 30 years."

The schedule squabble undoubtedly helped Milligan forget some of the more painful details of Sunday's game. Perhaps shaken by Bob Mars' inability to start at centre half, United was a disorganized team.

Mars, still troubled with a back injury suffered a few weeks ago, was expected to start until just a few minutes before game time. The sudden decision not to play Mars forced Milligan to shift Harold Holroyd to centre half and Volker Stoldt to left half.

Walker, McCaig Count for United

The half-line was but a small part of United's ineffectiveness. Stoldt earned marks for trying, and Victoria forwards Tommy Major and Tim Walker played well. Walker and Duane McCaig scored Victoria's goals.

but otherwise it was a game Milligan prefers to forget. Poor officiating didn't help matters. The game threatened to get out of hand when players from both teams brawled briefly in front of the Victoria goal just before the half. Milligan, who ventured onto the field for this round, was hit by a Vancouver player just as some semblance of order was restored.

Firefighters' fullback Gordie Stoldt was ejected late in the game, only minutes after coming on the field, for deliberately kicking Stoldt in the stomach. Stoldt resumed play but collapsed moments later and was helped off the field.

Exact extent of Stoldt's injuries won't be known until an examination is made today.

Major was also a casualty of Firemen's rough play. The Victoria outside left claimed he was kicked in the ankle and had to leave the field minutes before full time.

Vancouver 13, Victoria 3.

By DOUG PEDEEN

If there were no plans in the rugby book to send a Canadian team on an exhibition tour of Britain next season, Victoria's Crimson Tide might have had a better chance of coming out on top in the current McKeechie Cup final.

Hopes of going along on the overseas safari brought a few Vancouver rugby veterans back into action this season and prompted others to work harder at getting into top condition.

Among the latter might be numbered George Pui and Ted Hunt. Among the former is certainly John Newton, which means that the ex-Victoria High School student and Pui are back together for an 11th season.

Vancouver's perennial all-star wingers first joined forces at University of B.C. in 1950 and have since severed rugby relations only when Pui played for London Irish while teaching in England six years ago and when Newton "retired" last season.

Together they add up to one of several good reasons why Vancouver Reps are expected to retain the McKeechie Cup when they wind up the two-game, total-points final at Vancouver.

Reps grabbed a 13-3 lead in the series Saturday at Macdonald Park, coming from behind in the second half to down the Tide by two goals and a try to a try.

Both Newton and Pui were given little room to use their vaunted speed in the opening half, although Newton just missed a try on a slashing run. Stopped inches short by Tide Fullback Rob Wilson, he came up from the jarring tackle with a wrist sprain and did little the rest of the way.

It was a different story with Pui. Dodging and darting as brilliantly as ever, the flying splinter wrecked the Tide as he made the play for a try by forward Jack Whittey and flashed down the right wing for Vancouver's final two tries.

Victoria, carrying the play in the opening stages and then in the closing 12 minutes, went ahead after four minutes on a try, scored by Tim Briggs and set up by Wilson's long penalty kick that sailed into touch three yards from the Vancouver line.

Although Pui performed the scoring heroics, it was probably Hunt who did the most to get Vancouver's scoring machinery untricked.

The football-trained Hunt, who booted two conversions and made the plays for both of Phil's tries, was at his best in the second half. From his standoff spot, Hunt finally gave his backs running room with clever tactics that included "selling" a few dummies and heaving a few long laterals toward Pui's wing.

The archaic rugby rule that prohibits substitutions again proved its ability to prevent a true test of strength, Victoria forward Ross Irving was forced to leave the field with a shoulder injury just before the intermission and then returned 12 minutes from time. Even with both clubs at full strength, Vancouver, a bit tougher and tougher, a bit heavier, a bit faster and considerably more versatile, was a superior club and almost certainly would have won. But it is interesting to note that the Reps scored all their points while Irving was off and were forced back on the defensive after he returned.

Victoria suffered noticeably from an inability to move the ball constructively from scrum-half Pat MacLachlan's passes and from a tendency of three or four forwards to handle tackling chores with a reluctance that was painfully obvious to spectators and, it is hoped, to team selectors.

Tide changes may be expected before they get around to playing the final game, but on any Saturday, chances of prying the cup loose from Vancouver appear mighty slim.

DO-OR-DIE SITUATION FACES JUNIOR COUGARS

Victoria Cougars, who dropped an 8-3 decision to Esquimalt Bruins last week, get another shot at their rivals when Vancouver Island Junior "A" hockey playoffs continue tonight at Memorial Arena.

It's a do-or-die situation for the Cats, who have lost to both Esquimalt and Nanaimo in the three-club round-robin series. Nanaimo has won both its starts and Bruins have won and lost.

Each team plays two games against both opponents and in order to stay in the running, the Cougars need the unlikely combination of a win tonight, a Bruin victory over Nanaimo at Esquimalt Tuesday and a Victoria triumph Wednesday at Nanaimo. That, incidentally, would snarl everything into a three-way tie.

Optimists Advance; Bakers Singe Chiefs

Safely over one hurdle, in the city juvenile boys' basketball playoffs, Oak Bay Optimists tackle a tougher obstacle at Mount View High School tonight.

Optimists brushed aside Chinese Students 68-12 at Central Junior High Saturday night to win the two-game semifinal series 119-32. Tonight at 8.30 they launch a two-game final against YMCA.

Opening tonight's card at 7 will be a senior women's game between Esquimalt Bakery and Naval Vets.

Haide Chiefs were also in action at Central Junior High Saturday, but the city's senior "A" men's club ran into too much firepower.

They stepped in against New Westminster Bakers, top club in the mainland's Inter-City League, and got bombed 107-59 by the sweet-shooting visitors.

Bakers didn't end up with the top sniper. That honor went to Chiefs' Ken McCulloch, who fired 23 points. But the Bakers had a bigger array of shooting talent. Slick Ken Winslade potted 22 points to pace Bakers.

Bakers — Pedersen 16, McDonald 7, Belcher 6, Hartley 13, Carter 6, Potomak 13, Winslade 22, G. Drummond 3, B. Drummond 18. Total—107.

'Grilling' Next For U-2 Pilot

WASHINGTON (AP)—American U-2 spy pilot Francis Gary Powers faces detailed grilling from U.S. intelligence agents when he completes a secret rendezvous with his wife. Among questions awaiting the flyer, free after 21 months in a Russian prison, is: What really happened the morning of May 1, 1960, when he was downed deep inside the Soviet Union? And how much did he tell the Russians about his mission?

Presumably, preliminary questioning began shortly after the 32-year-old pilot crossed a Berlin bridge into U.S. hands Saturday in a two-for-one trade for Soviet spy Rudolf Abel.

Official sources did not say Powers is in military or government custody. But ever since he crossed a white line where Communist East Germany ends and West Berlin begins, contrived secrecy has cloaked his movements.

All the White House would say in a brief announcement Sunday was that Powers was home again and that he had been reunited with members of his family.

In a far-flung game of hide-and-seek Sunday, reporters tried to find out where Powers and his wife, Barbara, were holding their reunion. Various leads pointed to Maryland's eastern shore but the exact meeting place could not be pinned down.

Powers presumably met also with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver W. Powers, of Norton, Va.

The Central Intelligence Agency was believed to be setting up a board of inquiry to look fully into the Powers case. CIA director John McCone will determine the board's composition.

Another figure in the unprecedented exchange arrived home Sunday. He is James Britt Donovan, the New York lawyer who defended Abel in his 1957 espionage trial and then negotiated his deportation to Russia in a trade for Powers and Frederic Pryor, a graduate student held since last Aug. 25 by the East Germans as a spy suspect.

Donovan brought word that he thought still another American imprisoned in Russia would win his freedom. He is Marvin Makinen, 22-year-old student from Ashburnham, Mass., serving an eight-year sentence in Kiev on espionage charges.

Said Donovan: "I have what I believe to be assurance that if the better relations contemplated by this exchange should develop, the Soviet Union would contemplate extending clemency to Makinen."

'After Tomorrow Forget About Me'

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP)—"There is an opportunity to make a lot of cheap propaganda slamming East Germany—don't do it in my case," a 28-year-old Michigan man said after his release from a Soviet prison.

"After tomorrow, forget me," Frederic Pryor added. His mother beamed. "This is what I have been waiting for." She had been waiting 5½ months.

The scene was Willow Run Airport Sunday. A New York-Detroit airliner a backdrop. The principals were Pryor and his mother, Mrs. Millard H. Pryor.

Less than 48 hours earlier Frederic was released by East Germans who picked him up as an espionage suspect in East Berlin last Aug. 25 and held him until Saturday.

His mother said father, who learned of his detention three weeks earlier, had spent most of their time in Berlin since.

Frederic said he "assumed I was just a bonus in the deal" in which American U-2 pilot Francis Gary Powers was swapped for Soviet spy Rudolf Abel.

Frederic told reporters he was "happy, grateful to be home" but that he had not been physically mistreated by the Communists.

Powers and Abel, both serving sentences for spying, were traded by their respective governments on a bridge outside West Berlin. About the same time, Pryor was released at an East-West crossing in another part of the city.

Pryor was a graduate student at the Free University in West Berlin when he was detained. He went into East Berlin, he said, to listen to a speech by Communist Leader Walter Ulbricht.

Pryor had taken with him a

STRIPPERS PLAY DELILAH TO HUNGARY SAMSONS

BUDAPEST (AP)—Hungary accused Austria Sunday of sending strip teasers to the border to entice Communist border guards to defect. The strippers stand on the border "and display themselves with ingenuity to make themselves wanted," said the Communist newspaper, Nepszabadsag.

The striptease acts take place so frequently, the paper said, that "there is hardly a single frontier guard who has not had this strange manner of enticement directed against him."

Even in winter time, Nepszabadsag said, the girls lift their skirts high—and they are obviously not receiving sufficient money to make it worth their while to contract influenza.

'FLY AT OWN RISK'

Air Corridor Issue Flares

BERLIN (Reuters)—Britain and United States planes flew in the air corridors to West Berlin today as Russia warned they were making the flights at their own risk.

But a Soviet embassy spokesman in East Berlin denied Western statements that Russia wanted exclusive use of the corridors at certain times and altitudes.

He said the Russians merely "informed" the Western Allies that Soviet military planes would fly at indicated heights and times.

"If the Allies want to send their own planes to the altitudes at these times, there is nothing to stop them. They will, however, be warned and will take the full responsibility in case of accidents."

CRITICIZE PRESS

He added that Western press reports "distorted and dramatized" the situation.

He said "the Soviet Union controls the air corridors between West Berlin and West Germany and has a right to use them whenever it likes".

Four British transports flew in two of the corridors in defiance of the Soviet claim, an RAF spokesman said.

A United States air force spokesman said American military aircraft were "just flying routinely" in the corridors.

The RAF flew several flights in the corridors last Friday.

Indian Folklore Recorded For B.C. Archives

Folk tales of Vancouver Island Indians, told by George Clutesi of Alberni are now being recorded for the provincial archives.

The folk tales are part of a series of 12 lectures now being given by Mr. Clutesi at Victoria High School under auspices of the adult education division, Greater Victoria School Board.

"The stories he tells, in his own inimitable way, are being recorded on tape," an official said, "and at the close of the series they will be turned over to the archives."

A recognized authority on Indian folk lore, Mr. Clutesi speaks in Victoria High School every Monday evening.

DENT-PROOF BOWLERS FOR BANK MESSENGERS

No More Aching Heads

LONDON (AP)—A leading London bank has outfitted its money-carrying messengers with dent-proof, shock-absorbing derbies to protect them against club-swinging, pay-grab bandits.

A blow with a club is supposed to glance off the new bowlers that the 50 messengers for Coutts and Company started wearing Friday. A rash of recent attacks on the messengers alarmed the banks.

Dressed in their traditional derbies and maroon jackets, bank messengers and payroll clerks make easy marks for bandits lurking in London alleys and doorways.

Crooks have made a specialty of clubbing bank messengers, especially on the big payroll days of Thursday and Friday.

The messengers make their rounds unarmed and they've tried many ruses to outsmart bandits—taking different routes, riding in cars and making their rounds in pairs. But this hasn't halted the increase in the number of aching heads and the loss of thousands in cash.

Recruits of the Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry will carry out night training exercises in the Healy range, Albert Head and Mary Hill areas from Tuesday to Thursday.

Illuminating flares and blank ammunition will be used at the three training areas.

FALSE TEETH That Loosen Need Not Embarrass

Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plate dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH, the alkaline (non-acid) powder, on your plates. Hold false teeth more firmly, so they feel more comfortable. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor breath". Get FASTEETH at drug counters everywhere. Advt.

SOLUTION WEDNESDAY

IT HAPPENED LAST NIGHT

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — I get letters frequently from people asking, in effect, "Can Johnny 'Anybody' really become a movie star?"

Well, Bernie Anybody did. Bernie Schwartz of the Bronx — Tony Curtis. He's getting bigger constantly. And the way it happened to Bernie Schwartz is a story I like.

"About 12 years ago," says Bob Goldstein, an ex-New Yorker, now head of 20th Century-Fox in Europe, "I was in my office on Park Avenue, scouting movie talent for Universal-International. I was listening to a ball game if you must know the truth.

"Suddenly I learned that Miss Joyce Selznik, an agent, was shuffling around outside with her new discovery, her latest anybody.

HUNGRY LOOK

"He had a lot of black hair dropping down over his forehead. It was not a beautiful face but it had a lean and hungry look and strong bones."

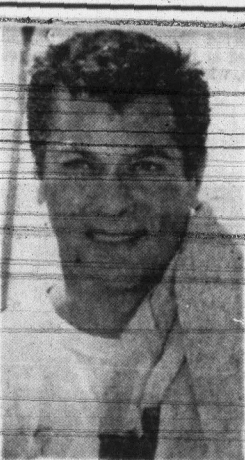

"He was wearing a sweat shirt and jeans, the uniform of the method actor. But he was not a method actor."

"He was just short of a suit. Miss Selznik introduced him as Mr. Bernie Schwartz. I flinched. Imagine it, 'Bernie Schwartz' as 'The Viking'.

Maybe it is better not to imagine it.

TALKATIVE

"He was a very talkative young man and he doesn't seem to have changed a bit. He was unlike another young boy named Brando who came to see me and did not answer

BERNIE ANYBODY

... better known as Tony Curtis. He's getting bigger constantly.

"The floor was just like any other floor and I never could figure why Brando could not take his eyes off of it. After asking Mr. Brando eight or nine questions and seeing he was just wedded to that floor, I put my hand on his shoulder, thanked him, and said we should get together for more of these interesting chats.

"But Bernie Schwartz, the Lochinvar of the Bronx, came in next day to read. I wouldn't say he delivered his lines like Sir Laurence Olivier, but in fairness I have never heard Sir Laurence speak like Bernie Schwartz. He had the accent of an immigrant taxi driver with a mouth full of hot bage!

"That's how Bernie got the message that took him to Hollywood. Janet Leigh and that sweet smell of success."

"I gave him a seven-year contract at $125 a week. Bernie was beside himself, which as his critics say, has turned out to be his favorite position."

"Since 'Bernie Schwartz' was not the most dramatic label for this virile, muscular young actor, I wrote down a long list of names and held them against his face.

SEEMED TO FIT

"Anthony Curtis seemed to fit. Since that noble christening, there have been so many Curtises in the Bronx you have to hunt, high and low to find a Bernie Schwartz.

"On getting his first cheque book, Tony took his father, mother and little brother to California. He met a young actress named Janet Leigh. The studio asked them not to get married right away. Tony and Janet got married right away. This demonstrated that Tony Curtis has a mind of his own. He has been forcibly demonstrating it ever since.

"Tony has lost a little but

WISH I'D SAID THAT: A salesman, demonstrating a sofa, told the customer, "Another good feature about it is that, when guests arrive unexpectedly, it cannot be turned into a bed."

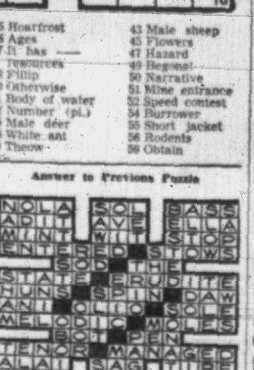

EARL'S PEARLS: A good husband is one who feels in his pocket every time he passes a mail box.

Bob Hope took one of those H'wood tours of the stars' homes. "I discovered," he says, "that I've been living in the wrong house for two years." ... That's earl, brother.

LONGEST SPAN on B.C. Hydro power line from Alberni to Maggie Lake is 1,800-foot leap across gully.

MAGGIE LAKE LINE COMPLETED

Power Crews Beat Deadline

B.C. Hydro has completed a power line from Alberni to the Noranda open pit iron mine at Maggie Lake, a distance of 44 miles, well ahead of its March deadline.

Power is needed so the mining company can meet its April deadline for the start of ore shipments to Japan.

The $2,700,000 line project was the most intensive and concentrated in B.C. Hydro history, and at the peak of construction it employed 300 men. There are now about 120 on the job.

IMPORTED POLES

All poles used on the line were imported from Washington, because no local firm could supply a sufficient quantity of treated poles immediately.

A small substation is being erected at the mine, and the power line will be taken westward to serve the communities of Ucluelet and Tofino, but there is no deadline on this portion of the job.

Line crews managed to erect

10 poles per day, only one-third the average amount of work because of the difficulty of the terrain.

Noranda has a 21-acre site on which ore lies under 200 feet of rock. It estimates it will ship 9,000,000 tons of ore on the largest contract ever held by a Canadian company with Japan.

Stripping and stockpiling are going ahead, and a crusher plant at the mine is expected to be ready for operation in April. Between 150 and 200 men are at work on the mine project.

'West Decaying, Doomed to Die'

PARKSVILLE — Western civilization is decaying and doomed to die, a University professor said here Saturday.

Dr. Barnett Savery, a professor of philosophy at the University of British Columbia, told an academic symposium the west's present optimism is not based on an analysis of the facts of life.

"Modern art and contemporary literature and music are manifestations of the decay of our civilization," he said.

Dr. Savery was presenting the pessimistic viewpoint in a discussion on the topic, "Where Is Man Heading?"

Dr. Suicho Kato, professor of Asian studies, said this pessimistic outlook was originated by German philosophers and is not found among intellectuals outside Europe.

"All people outside these areas have never been so full of hope," the professor said.

DUNCAN — Cowichan Agricultural Society will forward a protest to the B.C. Federation of Agriculture against what it calls a 40 per cent increase in rates on the Black Ball Ferry under government ownership.

Information was presented at the first meeting of the CAS directors for this year that since the government takeover a lumber truck weighing 69,100 pounds is charged $38.50 on the Nanaimo-Horseshoe Bay run instead of the previous $26.40.

Officers elected at the meeting were Chris Williams, president; Henry Westwick and Don Morton, vice-presidents, and William Barker, secretary.

Directors are Miss M. B. Waldon, Miss H. F. Rea, Tom Groves, Stan Owens, Ridley Wilson, Pete Groenewald, Don O'Brien, Bill Evans, Matthew Moir, John Hulbert, Hamish Mutter and Archie Stevenson.

COURTENAY — Demand for coal from the Tsuble River mine operated by Comox Mining Co., is exceeding estimates, according to operators Stan Lawrence, George Duffield and Paul Grundy.

When the firm took the mine over from Canadian Collieries (Dunsmuir) Ltd. it expected to employ from 60 to 70 men, but the present payroll is 108.

The company provides coal to the RCAF at Comox, government buildings in Vancouver, and a limestone operation at Blubber Bay on Texada Island.

Biggest gain, though, was when the Bamberton plant of B.C. Cement Co. Ltd., which had switched to oil two years ago, decided to change back to coal.

BOYS NEED BLINKERS AS GIRLS TAKE UP THE SLACK AT COLLEGE

By IAIN HUNTER

Girls are wearing the pants today at Victoria College. And faculty members, traditionally slackphobe, are smirking.

The teaching staff believes that this "overdose of unfeminine attire"—in the words of Mrs. Phoebe Noble—will have such an effect upon the male population at the college that the girls will realize the bad taste of the whole business.

Mrs. Noble, who is co-ordinator of women's activities at the college, said this is one activity she would rather not co-ordinate. But she gave her approval of the scheme decided upon by the Women's Undergraduate Society executive in honor of "Twirp Week."

This is the week, during which "the woman is required to pay."

If Mrs. Noble and unofficial polls conducted among male undergraduates are correct, the women will pay dearly for this latest prank.

"Boys definitely disapprove of girls wearing slacks to college," she said.

The men have not donned skirts in defence, although there was some talk of them appearing in kilts.

Mrs. Noble was asked if female members of the staff are also wearing slacks.

"Aaugh," replied the dean of women.

City Starts Beauty Job On 'Gateway'

City public works department today began a rush job of carrying out the long-awaited and controversial Douglas Street "gateway" beautification project.

Crews began laying a water-main at Tolmie that will service the tree-lined boulevards to be constructed on both sides of Douglas from Tolmie to the Roundabout.

Action followed on the heels of city council's order Friday ratifying an agreement with the Capital Improvement District Commission to prohibit parking in the curb lanes of the beautified section in return for a $78,000 gift to finance the work.

THREE MONTHS

The project, including construction and planting of the boulevards, new curbs and traffic lane dividers, probably will be completed in about three months—in time for the centennial year tourist season when most visitors enter the city from the north.

CIDC has offered to finance a $45,000 extension of the beautification project from Tolmie to Saanich Roads but still is awaiting ratification from Saanich council which has accepted and then rejected the gift.

Opposition to the project last year was launched by merchants along the street who said the no-parking restriction required by CIDC would hurt their business. CIDC representatives countered that the main entrance to the city required full use of the six traffic lanes to handle the flow of cars.

Approximately 100 students and faculty members of Victoria College choir will join with the Victoria Symphony Orchestra this March to present Mozart's "Requiem."

This will be the first major choral production in the history of the college.

Rehearsals are now in progress under the direction of D. B. Gaddes of the faculty of education.

Last year 35 members of the college choir took part in Beethoven's Ninth Symphony with the local symphony orchestra.

CHEMIST'S OPINION

Cattle Better Fed Than Their Owners

By NORMAN CRIBBENS

Cattle and livestock today are generally better fed than human beings.

This, says research chemist Dr. Leon J. Rubin from Toronto, is due to scientific progress in animal nutrition and the fact that animals cannot stuff themselves with the wrong things as so many humans do.

"Even if it wanted to, the steer cannot walk into a cafeteria and order two pieces of pie and a milkshake for lunch. 'Yet see so many Canadians eating these fatty foods and always I want to tell them 'Please don't do it—you are heading for trouble!'"

GREAT PROGRESS

Dr. Rubin is one of 50 chemists employed in the research department of Canada Packers Ltd. Interviewed in Victoria today, he talked of "spectacular progress" in the development of animal feeds over the past 10 years.

"Only a few years ago," he said, "the poultry producer used four or more pounds of feed to produce one pound of meat. Today he can get a pound of meat for little more than two pounds of feed."

"The same trend applies to livestock. We have developed a feed for swine which cuts down input to three pounds for a pound of meat—and we've done much the same for cattle."

INTENSIVE STUDY

Dr. Rubin said animal nutrition is now being studied intensively by every agricultural college in Canada, and Canada Packers' research department is working with them.

Important healing products are also being obtained from the bodies of animals slaughtered by Canada Packers, and these are sold in bulk to pharmaceutical houses for resale to hospitals and retailers.

One is an anti-inflammatory agent produced from the pancreas glands of animals which dissolves bruising marks on the skin.

"This is a development of the old-fashioned beefstake applied to a black eye," Dr. Rubin said. "For instance, a man in New York whose face had been beaten black and blue by thugs received injections of this glandular product."

"In less than a week all the bruise marks had disappeared."

BREAKS CLOTS

Another by-product, obtained from the liver of animals, is being used to disperse blood clots in human beings.

Dr. Rubin came to B.C. to attend a cattleman's conference in Kamloops, but has since visited several farms in the interior.

"We want farmers to realize that they must work hand in hand with research to obtain better and more economical food production. The benefits of this co-operation will be passed on to the consumer in quality production at lower cost."

Harbor Project For Nanaimo Costs $600,000

The federal works department will spend an estimated $600,000 on construction of a small boat harbor at Nanaimo in the fiscal year beginning April 1.

Departmental estimates released today show the Nanaimo project is the biggest single item scheduled for the Vancouver Island area.

Other projects: Ganges harbor improvements $185,000, Halfmoon Bay wharf repairs $26,000, Kelsey Bay harbor improvements $190,000, Ladysmith public building, alterations and addition, $40,000; Melvins Landing harbor improvements $26,000.

Port Alberni assembly wharf extension and repairs $125,000, Port Hardy wharf improvements $176,000, French Creek harbor improvements $200,000, Shoal Harbor boat harbor $265,000, Tofino harbor improvements $50,000.

B.C. Civil Servants 'Very Disappointed' With Pay Increases

'Thousands Won't Get Any Boost'—O'Connor

Immediate raises of from 3 to 9 per cent for about one half of the B.C. civil service were announced today. Eventually all civil servants will benefit from an increase in their maximum pay. There are 3,000 government employees in Victoria, many of them seniors, and most will be affected.

Dr. H. M. Morrison, chairman of the civil service commission, said one third of the 10,200 full-time civil servants will get raises April 1.

One third of the 4,000 temporary and casual employees will get similar boosts.

A further 3,000 government employees who get paid flat hourly rates, with no incremental categories, also get raises.

INCREASE FOR ALL

However, in its report to the government recommending the new salaries, the commission calls for an increase in all maximum categories.

The civil servants now getting their maximum will have to wait—in some cases up to five years—before getting the raise.

In addition the government is raising pay—in all categories—of key health and welfare personnel.

Health and welfare employees who will get special raises, regardless of category, also ranging from 3 to 9 per cent, include:

Registered nurses, social workers, psychologists, public health nurses, x-ray technicians, druggists, dentists and physicians.

"DISAPPOINTING"

Immediate reaction of the B.C. Government Employees Association to the new salaries was one of disappointment and frustration.

"It is very disappointing," said E. P. O'Connor, BCGEA secretary.

"It is disappointing not only for the amount, but also for the principle."

The BCGEA sought raises now in all categories ranging from 5 to 20 per cent.

Its demands would have cost the government about $4,000,000.

The actual raises approved will cost about $2,000,000.

Premier Bennett allotted a total of $2,775,000 for pay boosts in his budget.

But some $800,000 of this was for regular increases for employees who this year advanced in seniority and moved into higher categories.

MEET SATURDAY

The association executive will meet in Vancouver Saturday to discuss an appeal for better raises.

Mr. O'Connor said the executive will debate whether to appeal to the new board of reference for civil service disputes.

The board is chaired by B.C. Power Commission head, Dr. H. L. Keenleyside.

Mr. O'Connor said the pay increase amounted to an average 5 per cent.

"This confirms the fact that government employees are and will certainly be, the lowest paid workers in their category in the province," he added.

"Thousands of government employees will get no increase at all."

"The only people who will benefit by this are those already in the top range. Those who have less than six or seven years' service will get nothing," he said.

Mr. O'Connor said this move ran completely against past practice of the Civil Service Commission.

He said the commission had also apparently abandoned its usual yardstick in granting raises—comparative surveys of workers outside the government.

As "a particularly glaring example" he cited the pay for hospital orderlies, who receive $60 more from hospitals than their colleagues directly employed by the government.

The increase for government orderlies is "a miserly $11," said Mr. O'Connor.

MANY SEE RESCUE OF GIRL

A crowd of more than 100 gathered at Oak Bay boathouse Sunday afternoon to watch a young girl rescued from the icy waters of the bay.

Two men put out from the boathouse in a cruiser when the girl was spotted swimming near Mary Todd Island.

By the time they got her back to shore Oak Bay fire department's emergency vehicle was on hand to rush her to Royal Jubilee Hospital.

The emergency vehicle and a police car had difficulty getting through a swarm of Sunday afternoon sightseers to get into and out of the boathouse parking lot.

The girl, 14 years old, was released from hospital after being treated for shock.

Oak Bay police said she apparently just walked into the sea and started swimming away.

Joint Raid Nabs Suspect In Drug Case

A man wanted by RCMP in connection with the recent roundup of suspected members of dope-peddling rings in Western Canada was arrested in Victoria Saturday night.

Edward Scosky, 34, of Vancouver, was due to appear in court in Vancouver today charged with conspiracy to traffic in drugs.

A second arrest was made Saturday in Vancouver when Phillip Neil Jackson, 28, was taken into custody on a similar charge.

LAST TWO

RCMP say these are the last two arrests to be made in the giant roundup of suspects which started in Vancouver, Victoria and Calgary Jan. 9.

A total of 38 persons have been arrested. Victoria's tally is four.

Scosky was picked up by Victoria RCMP, city police and Saanich police in a raid on a premises on lower Yates Street.

ASK The TIMES

Q. The Roman walls of Britain are still intact. How far north did they build them? H.L.

A. The Antonine Wall was built about A.D. 140 to 150 to mark the northern boundary of Roman Britain, between the Firth of Forth and the River Clyde. This was built farther north than Hadrian's Wall which marked the northern boundary circa A.D. 125. This wall stretched from the River Tyne estuary to Solway Firth.

Q. Is Goodacre Lake in Beacon Hill Park man-made or a natural pond? B.L.

A. It is artificial.

CHATTERTON INVITES SUGGESTIONS

'Name-the-Riding' Pitch by MP

George Chatterton, Esquimalt-Saanich MP, has invited residents of his riding to write to him regarding changing the name of the riding to something more suitable to the area.

No postage will be required—just an envelope addressed to George Chatterton, MP, c/o House of Commons, Ottawa.

There have been complaints, one of them from Reeve A. C. Wurtele of Esquimalt, that either the municipality be included in the riding, or that the name "Esquimalt" be dropped.

The reason the name "Esquimalt" was included was that a large part of the unorganized area in the riding lies in the legal land district named Esquimalt. Mr. Chatterton stated in a press release, "but which few of the average people are aware of."

"The name of the riding can be changed by private bill and I would like to get suggestions from people in the riding as to what the new name might be," he wrote.

"If you haven't bought my valentine yet, how about this little red one that gets 35 miles to the gallon."

SHOPPING GUIDE

Beautify Leather Goods With This Conditioner

By PENNY SAVER

How many of us take our leather possessions for granted. What I mean is, how many of us really realize that we could preserve these things indefinitely by taking special care of them.

For all leathers, especially colored or dyed ones, there's a liquid conditioner available that restores natural oils to the material as well as protecting it from cracks, scratches and scuffs. Because it's completely absorbed by the leather, it leaves the surface free from residue and won't soil clothing. It waterproofs too.

Conditioner can be used for cleaning boots, shoes, leather clothing, accessories, sporting goods, upholstery, travelling goods, belts, book bindings and military equipment.

A four-ounce bottle sells for only 50 cents.

For natural leathers, saddles and so on, there's a paste type saddle soap that cleans as well as conditions. It might be interesting to note here that this product is made by the same company that supplies the royal stables and Her Majesty's cavalry. It's only 40 cents a tin.

Onyx, when well finished, makes beautiful ornaments. I've seen some really "out of this world" examples of what can be done with this stone, selling for "out of this world" reasonable prices.

You won't be able to resist hand finished free-form onyx ashtrays for $3.95. The finish features ripples, stripes and marbles that would look right with almost any type of furnishing.

Bridge set of ashtrays in the same material are only $4.95 a set. In each there's a heart, diamond, club and spade-shaped tray. You won't want to miss seeing them.

WHY GROW OLD?

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

'Pointed-Toes' Produce Pain . . . Pointed Remarks by Readers

Not long ago I wrote an article about the 'extremely pointed-toe shoes and the damage they must do to feet. I heard from many of my readers concerning this, and think you will be interested in seeing some of the comments.

"I went shopping the other day for some comfortable, casual shoes. The minute I said 'comfortable,' the sales man went white. When I complained about the extremely pointed toes, he looked at me curiously as though I were something from a distant planet, while the other lady customers were shocked that I would dare defy the dictates of style to that extent.

"I explained that I already have three pairs of so-called 'comfortable' shoes in my closet, which I cannot wear without becoming a cripple, and that I have been walking about the house in my stocking feet. Now that winter is here, my feet are feeling a bit drafty.

"Well, I finally bought my shoes so now I have four pairs of pointed-toe casual shoes in my closet, and my feet are encased in two pairs of stockings while I go about my household chores."

"My neighbor and my daughter would like to join me in saying that we have corns (almost bunions), also corns between our toes which none of us ever had before there were pointed toe shoes."

"Because I tried to sell myself on the pointed-toe shoe, I bought them wider or longer or both. As a result, they are rubbing my toes causing corns, and rubbing my heels causing callouses."

"Today you hit my great pet peeve, the extremely pointed toe. Let me tell you what they have done to me. My left big toe now actually is overlapping my next toe."

"Anything that can be done to bring back a normal foot through proper shoe styling should be done. It's time someone took an interest in our feet. No wonder we can't walk to the corner grocery any more."

"I did not develop corns from the pointed toes, but now my big toes turn in and almost cross the toes next to them."

If you would like to have my exercises for weak arches, send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 14. Address Josephine Lowman in care of this newspaper.

DEAR ABBY . . .

Presto—Chango!

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Tell the girl who got rid of her wart by what some people would call hocus-pocus that I believe her. I had a flower bed of warts on my hand and a girl friend told me to cut a potato in as many slices as I had warts, feed the slices to a pig, and the warts would disappear. Well, I did it and in two weeks the warts disappeared. And they never came back.

WARTLESS

DEAR ABBY: If I told you all the degrees I had you would think I was bragging, but I only mention this so you won't think I'm a nut. I have had experience with curing warts with a potato and it does work. Only I cut the potato in half and rubbed my wart with it and buried the potato, but side up. Within three weeks, my wart disappeared. Everyone I told this to got the same results.

A BELIEVER.

DEAR ABBY: Please don't think I'm crazy but I got rid of a wart when someone asked if they could "buy" it from me for a nickel. We just shook hands, I took the nickel and, sure enough, the wart went away. Sincerely yours,

MINNIE.

DEAR ABBY: The resident power within every human being to exercise his subconscious mind for relief of bodily ills has been recognized by medical science for several generations. It is called "auto-suggestion"—which is why the wart disappeared. It is neither voodoo nor new-doo.

M.D.

DEAR ABBY: Why didn't you tell that stupid reader that the string she tied around her wart cut off the blood supply and killed it, and the potato she buried had nothing to do with it? How can anyone with any sense believe that potato hokey?

NOT STUPID.

DEAR ABBY: Don't laugh. When I was a child I had a wart on my little finger. I was told by an old lady to steal a dish rag from a friend, rub it over the wart and then bury the dish rag after dark. I followed the instructions and the wart disappeared like magic.

ANOTHER BAFFLED.

OF PERSONAL INTEREST

In San Francisco

Several Victorians have been recent holidaymakers in California. Among those signing the visitors' book at British Columbia House in San Francisco lately have been Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Nimmo, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Skilling, Mrs. A. H. F. Stelek, Mrs. Charlotte Holmes and Mr. M. Cogswell.

Breakfast Party

Mrs. Madeline Johnson entertained at a breakfast party in her St. Charles Street home recently in honor of Miss Ethel Macklin who leaves shortly for a tour of Europe, after which she will make her home in England. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Gosley, Mr. and Mrs. Alan Purdy, the Misses Linden Louis, Gillian MacCall and Lynne McIvor, Mr. John Gault, Mr. Joe Lewis and Mr. Fraser Nicholson, Vancouver.

Surprise

White carnations en corsage were presented to bride-elect Miss Barbara Harris at a surprise shower given in the Baxter Avenue home of Miss Irene White. Co-hostesses were the Misses Donna Armstrong, Kathy Fung and Diane Jury. Pink carnations were received by the guest of honor's mother, Mrs. C. Harris and the groom-elect's mother, Mrs. E. Armstrong. Pink and white bows and colored clothes pins decorated a turquoise laundry basket containing gifts. Also present were Mrs. T. White, Mrs. R. Manzer, Mrs. D. Clough, Mrs. K. Burden, Mrs. H. Armstrong, Mrs. G. Cook, Mrs. C. Nuttall, Mrs. K. Roskelley.

her ancestor's wedding gown, and her two younger sisters, Susan and Jennifer, acted as bridesmaids.

Miss Mary MacKay took the part of Miss Jane Ann Saunders, later to be Mrs. Samuel Nesbitt of Erin Hall, and Miss Jean MacKay was Miss Martha Cheney.

Matriarch of 1862, Mrs. John Work, was Miss Gail Barnes while Mrs. Peter O'Reilly was portrayed by Miss Linda Harness. White ostrich plumes, set at a jaunty angle, topped the dark curls of Miss Nan Dufour as she became Lady Jane Franklin.

The clock went back a hundred years on Saturday when hundreds of guests crammed the Club Sirocco to attend the IODE Festival of 1962. To mark the city's centennial year, general convener, Mrs. H. Menzies, stall conveners and many of the helpers donned the full skirts, lace mittens and plumed bonnets of 100 years ago. Only "out of period" part of their costumes were the IODE pins they wore.

Mrs. George R. Pearkes opened the affair at 11 a.m. As she entered Mrs. Hazel Sherratt sang "Land of Hope and Glory," accompanied by David Palmer.

Preceding Mrs. Pearkes, standard bearers of participating chapters formed a colorful guard of honor, dressed in white and carrying the Union Jacks. History came alive as members of Oak Leaf Junior Chapter portrayed pioneer women who were well known here when the city was young. Each was introduced by James K. Nesbitt, who acted as commentator.

Mrs. Thomas Harris, wife of the first mayor, was Miss Anne Dufour. Her daughters, Eliza and Emily, were the Misses Sharon MacKay and Joy Elliot. Miss Diane Freethy was Lady Douglas, and her daughter, Mrs. John Sebastian Helmenken, was Miss Tony Burnett.

The three great-granddaughters of Mrs. Robert Burns McKicking made a charming trio as Miss Heather Church wore birthday-Dogwood flowers decorated the large birthday cake that was presented to members of Victoria Post No. 3, Native Daughters of British Columbia, by past grand factor Miss Lillian Smethurst at recent meeting that marked 51st birthday of the organization. Following the business meeting Mrs. C. Baxter, chief factor, welcomed Victoria Post No. 1, Native Sons of B.C., who presented an engraved record book as a birthday gift. L. Wessondale extended greetings, and R. Creech thanked their hostesses. Refreshments were served.

A sum of $1,500 was raised for IODE work.

Stall conveners were: Delicatessen, Mrs. A. Warren Smith; aprons, Mrs. J. C. Blouey; candy, Mrs. A. Drysdale; jams and jellies, Mrs. W. Van Norman; home cooking, Mrs. C. Baker; French Shop, Mrs. B. Shaw; novelties, Miss Helen Rattray, and superfluties, Miss Eleanor Nagle. Miss MacNab was in charge of tickets and Mrs. R. J. Clarke, publicity.

GLENN GOES IN ORBIT
WEDNESDAY . . . IF . . .

CAPE CANAVERAL (UPI) — Astronaut John H. Glenn Jr. and his 93-foot space machine were all set today for his scheduled orbital flight around the world Wednesday but weathermen were worried about rough seas in the Atlantic recovery areas.

If the seas subside and the weather is good, and Glenn and his spacecraft and rocket remain in top shape, the astronaut will leap into orbit some time between 4:30 a.m. and 9:30 a.m. PST Wednesday.

Record
Spending
Forecast

OTTAWA (CP) — An increase in federal spending to record levels was indicated today as the government put before Parliament a basic program of $6,276,211,594 in budgetary expenditures for the coming fiscal year.

The blue book of spending estimates, tabled in the Commons by Finance Minister Fleming, is just a beginning for the 1962-63 year starting April 1.

Another $736,700,000 in estimated costs of the enlarged old age pensions program will boost the basic over-all spending forecast to $7,012,911,594. Supplementary outlays as the year progresses could add many millions to that.

BASIC PROGRAM

The basic budgetary spending program compares with one of $6,123,758,182 put before Parliament in January last year for the 1961-62 fiscal year. Old age pensions, not counted in budgetary expenditures, boosted this to $6,730,328,182 in total spending.

The increase of $282,583,412, in overall spending would be much larger if it were not for the new Dominion-provincial tax deal this year which cuts tax-rental payments to the provinces. The savings on this is an estimated $279,300,000.

Boost
For Coast
Shipyards

OTTAWA — British Columbia shipyards can anticipate something of a boom as a result of the federal government's proposed shipbuilding program.

Estimates for the coming fiscal year, tabled in the Commons today, show the department of transport intends construction of a wide variety of ships, and a number of the jobs will likely go to west coast yards.

One program calls for construction of eight coast guard cutters, two for each coast and two for the Great Lakes.

Cost of the eight vessels is estimated at $4,217,000, of which $2,205,000 will be spent in the coming fiscal year.

One of the biggest jobs will be construction of two replacement weather station ships for the west coast, replacing the Stonetown and St. Catharines. Estimated total cost of the two ships is $18,000,000. An estimated $4,800,000 will be spent in the coming year.

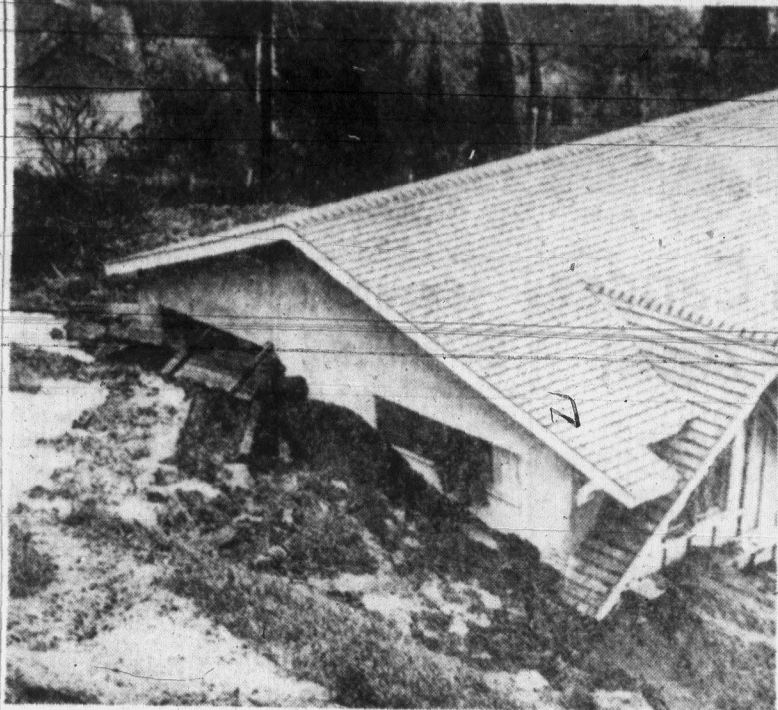

In addition Royal Canadian Navy plans letting contracts for six destroyer escorts, of the repeat Restigouche class.

Each DE costs an estimated $22,000,000, excluding armament.

Canada-U.S. Merger
On Way Says Weekly

U.S. News and World Report magazine says a merger between Canada and the United States "is quietly moving into the realm of serious attention."

"Many businessmen in Canada predict privately that there will be full economic union with the U.S. within 10 years," the weekly American publication says in its current issue.

NINE-YEAR-OLD Dennis Milne was killed in his sleep Sunday when mudslide crushed wall and plunged into bedroom of this home in Monterey Park, five miles northeast of Los Angeles. Boy's bedroom is at left.

Lakes 7 Feet Deep
Flood Los Angeles

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Southern California's sixth day of saturation started spectacularly today as cloudbursts opened up on parts of the Los Angeles area, creating lakes up to seven feet deep.

There were floods in the Hollywood Hills and one house was torn loose from its foundation and driven into the street.

A mudslide loosened by the rain crashed into two homes, killing a nine-year-old boy and an infant. The slides were among hundreds on Southern California slopes during the weekend.

Damage to property soared into the millions.

Storm drain covers popped open from excessive pressure in many parts of the city. At the intersection of Sunset Boulevard and Pacific Coast Highway this morning the water was seven feet deep.

It was four feet deep on Vermont Avenue between 88th and 90th Streets in Los Angeles. It covered the rooftops of automobiles at some other points.

The police flood control office said all major streets in the Hollywood area were awash.

More than 20 deaths had been attributed to the storm, one of the heaviest in the area's history, before today's downpour.

Nearly eight inches of rain had fallen in Los Angeles since the storm started last Wednesday.

Sevigny Makes Apology
For 'Communist' Remarks

(Times News Service)
OTTAWA — Associate Defence Minister Pierre Sevigny today apologized to the governments of Ecuador and British Guiana for calling them communist.

Sevigny said in the Commons he had been misinformed about the two governments when he termed them communist during a speech last week in Montreal.

"I have since been satisfied that the government of those two countries are not communist," he said. "I am glad to correct my statement."

"I guess maybe I was a little out of line," he said.

Mr. Sevigny also said he wished to stress that in referring to the threat of Communism in Far Eastern countries he meant only the military threat posed by Communist China.

last Thursday: "We see a Black Africa fired up by Communist propaganda, a South America where, in just the past six months, Communist governments have taken over British Guiana and Ecuador."

Sevigny, a Second World War hero who lost a leg in battle, is the cabinet's staunchest advocate of Canadian membership in the organization of American states.

NERVOUS

The 44-year-old minister appeared nervous and fidgeted with his prepared statement as he awaited an opportunity to rise and make the apology.

An informant said earlier today that Mr. Sevigny was questioned by Prime Minister Diefenbaker who was angered at Mr. Sevigny's references to the two countries as Communist-governed and to reports that Mr. Sevigny had said the "yellow peril" is one of the greatest threats to Western civilization.

It is understood that Mr. Diefenbaker instructed him to make an apology.

There were also reports circulating that Ecuador was planning a formal protest to Canada, but these could not be substantiated.

Sevigny, in an address to a group of architects, had said

GANGSTER SUSPECT CHARGED
Toronto Policeman Slain

TORONTO (CP) — Ronald Turpin, 28, of Toronto, was charged with capital murder today after a policeman was killed by gunfire on an east end street.

Const. Fred Nash, 34, was shot at close range while making a routine check of a driver's licence. He was shot twice more as he lay wounded on the ground.

Turpin underwent an emergency operation after being shot in the arm and neck.

The shooting occurred as Const. Nash was checking an old panel truck. A second man in the truck escaped.

Nash, lying on the road, told Const. Robert Butler before he died: "He shot me first."

Police said Turpin, wounded in the arms and neck, is also being questioned in connection with the gangland murder of Lorne Gibson, 35, and the shooting with intent of Della Burns, 33, a key figure in the Gibson investigation.

COLUMBIA

'Exports
Not Issue'
— Fulton

OTTAWA (CP) — The question of exporting Canadian hydro power is "quite distinct" from disposal of Canada's share of Columbia River under the treaty with the United States, Justice Minister Fulton said today.

Canada's national energy policy contemplates export of power including hydro "if it is genuinely surplus," he added. In fact, the National Energy Board approved nine hydro licences in 1961.

Mr. Fulton was replying in a statement to remarks attributed to Toronto economist Walter Gordon at Vancouver Saturday. (See page 3.)

Mr. Fulton said it was false to assume the government had a policy of no exports of hydro. It was incorrect to assume that the Columbia's "unique block of very low-cost power" from American generators was an export commodity.

By treaty terms, it was supposed to come back to Canada to serve Canadian needs.

Mr. Fulton also accused Mr. Gordon of "several gross misrepresentations."

The U.S. would spend some $470,000,000 to utilize the full benefit of the Columbia development plan, Mr. Fulton said.

Canada would not have to spend $100,000,000 in transmission lines to get its share of American power because "the treaty obliges the U.S. to deliver our share of the power free of charge at the border."

The $478,000,000 cost of the initial Canadian program includes $344,000,000 for three dams plus additional expenditure on transmission lines to get the power from the American border to its destination—or load centres.

COLLAPSES

Policeman's

Gunman

VANCOUVER (CP) — A city policeman early today ignored a gunman's command to drop his weapon and instead fired it in the air.

The gunman dropped his gun and collapsed, apparently thinking himself shot. He lay on the ground moaning and holding his stomach. But at hospital it was found his only injuries were superficial ones.

Constable David Roberts handcuffed the man. Another man was taken into custody in the early morning incident that sent 14 police cars to a Kingsway sporting goods store after reports men were on the roof.

CAREER OFFICER NAMED
AMBASSADOR TO U.S.

OTTAWA (CP) — Appointment of Charles Ritchie, a career diplomatic officer, as Canadian ambassador in Washington, was announced today in the Commons by Prime Minister Diefenbaker.

Mr. Ritchie has been permanent representative to the United Nations since 1957.

He will succeed A. D. P. Heeney, who served two tours there as Canadian ambassador in Washington.

CONDITION 'SATISFACTORY'

Charles Rushed
To Hospital;

LONDON (Reuters) — Queen Elizabeth today visited her 13-year-old son Prince Charles who was recovering from a successful emergency appendectomy at a London hospital.

Cries of "tell him to get well soon" greeted the Queen from a crowd of some 200 assembled at the hospital gates.

Elizabeth smiled and waved at the well-wishers.

She was taken to her son's private ward, where he was sitting up in bed.

Charles was operated on at 2 a.m. after a 58-mile dash to London from his school at Cheam in Berkshire.

He spent the night in a private ward of London's Hospital for Sick Children, attended by two nurses, after his appendix was removed by Dr. David Waterson.

The Queen authorized the operation by telephone from Windsor Castle.

FATHER NOTIFIED

The prince's father, the Duke of Edinburgh, was notified by cable at Caracas, Venezuela, and was expected to continue his current South American tour.

Charles complained of feeling ill Sunday morning after chapel at Cheam.

The Cheam school physician, Dr. Basil Phillips, diagnosed appendicitis and the Queen was notified.

The Queen's pediatrician, Sir Wilfred Sheldon, 60, rushed to the school from his home and a surgeon at Newbury District Hospital near the school, Dr. John Joyce, was called in.

ACCOMPANIED PRINCE

The three doctors accompanied the prince as he was taken to London by ambulance with a police escort, arriving at the hospital shortly after midnight.

Five doctors signed a medical bulletin early today.

His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales underwent an operation for acute appendicitis early this morning. His condition is satisfactory.

But Door
Kept Open
In Notes

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The United States and Britain appeared ready today to reject a proposal by Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev that the Geneva disarmament talks start out as an 18-nation heads-of-government conference.

But President Kennedy and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan seemed willing to keep the door open for a possible summit meeting with Khrushchev later, possibly before June 1.

The Kennedy-Macmillan position became apparent as U.S.-British consultations began on the Khrushchev proposal for a multi-nation summit conference when the Geneva discussions begin March 14.

NOTE MADE PUBLIC

The White House made public the text of the Feb. 7 Kennedy-Macmillan message to Khrushchev which proposed opening the Geneva session with a meeting of the U.S., British and Soviet foreign ministers.

Khrushchev came back with his plan for a summit session. In their letter, the two Allied leaders urged that Khrushchev

Peace Talks Resume

join them in taking personal responsibility of seeing that the disarmament conference does not fail.

The president and prime minister said the talks offer an "opportunity and a challenge which time and history may not once again allow us."

"The disarmament discussions," they said, "must not be allowed to drift into failure."

But the outlook for a summit level discussion as proposed by Khrushchev diminished after British ambassador Sir David Gammans Gore conferred with Secretary of State Dean Rusk for 20 minutes today.

"I don't think it will be suitable that heads of government start this conversation (the Geneva disarmament conference)," Gore told newsmen.

"At a later stage, maybe," he said.

This paralleled what was expected to be the U.S. reaction. President Kennedy has publicly opposed premature summit talks which have not been preceded by diplomatic negotiations at lower levels.

There was speculation here the Allies would reject Khrushchev's proposal for a March 14 summit but indicate they might agree to a more limited heads-of-government meeting after foreign ministers have met in Geneva.

REPORT JUNE 1

The long-scheduled 18-nation Geneva disarmament conference is supposed to report to the United Nations by June 1. This would appear to indicate that if there were a summit get-together on disarmament it might be held before that date.

Centennial Flashback . . .

THIS DAY IN VICTORIA - 1862

Uneasy concern was rife throughout the town over the plight of nine residents of Port Townsend, believed shanghaied aboard the British ship True Briton. Reports from across the strait say the men, all highly-respected citizens, were lured aboard under the pretext of working the ship to Victoria, where they were to be paid off.

But it is believed the True Briton is heading direct for Honolulu, in the Sandwich Islands.

James A. McCrea was chosen treasurer of the fire department. He succeeds the late William Wallis.

A rumor circulated about gold findings on a creek emptying into the ocean about 30 miles south of Cape Flattery, but was not strong enough to start a gold rush.

BOYS NEED BLINKERS AS GIRLS TAKE UP THE SLACK AT COLLEGE

By IAIN HUNTER

Girls are wearing the pants today at Victoria College. And faculty members, traditionally slackophobe, are smiling.

The teaching staff believes that this "overdose of unfeminine attire" in the words of Mrs. Phoebe Noble will have such an effect upon the male population at the college that the girls will realize the bad taste of the whole business.

Mrs. Noble, who is co-ordinator of women's activities at the college, said this is one activity she would rather not co-ordinate. But she gave her approval of the scheme decided upon by the Women's Undergraduate Society executive in honor of "Twirp Week."

This is the week during which "the woman is required to pay."

If Mrs. Noble and unofficial polls conducted among male undergraduates are correct, the women will pay dearly for this latest prank.

"Boys definitely disapprove of girls wearing slacks to college," she said. The men have not donned skirts in defence, although there was some talk of them appearing in kilts. Mrs. Noble was asked if female members of the staff are also wearing slacks. "Aaugh," replied the dean of women.

City Starts Beauty Job On 'Gateway'

City public works department today began a rush job of carrying out the long-awaited and controversial Douglas Street "gateway" beautification project.

Crews began laying a water-main at Tolmie that will service the tree-lined boulevards to be constructed on both sides of Douglas from Tolmie to the Roundabout.

Action followed on the heels of city council's order Friday ratifying an agreement with the Capital Improvement District Commission to prohibit parking in the curb lanes of the beautified section in return for a $78,000 gift to finance the work.

THREE MONTHS
The project, including construction and planting of the boulevards, new curbs and traffic lane dividers, probably will be completed in about three months—in time for the centennial year tourist season.

CIDC has offered to finance a $45,000 extension of the beautification project from Tolmie to Saanich Roads but still is awaiting ratification from Saanich council which has accepted and then rejected the gift.

Opposition to the project last year was launched by merchants along the street who said the no-parking restriction required by CIDC would hurt their business. CIDC representatives countered that the main entrance to the city required full use of the six traffic lanes to handle the flow of cars.

South Pacific 'Flu Hits Esquimalt Ships

A type of influenza has broken out aboard three RCN destroyer escorts presently on a goodwill and training cruise in the southern Pacific.

A report from the squadron commander, Captain Victor Brown, says there are 21 cases of runny noses, heavy heads and light stomachs among the approximately 750 officers and men aboard Assiniboine, Otawa and Margaree.

"Excellent response to treatment has been experienced in every case," ran the message, "and no unforeseen complications are anticipated."

The ships, part of the Esquimalt-based Second Escort Squadron, are presently en route to Subic Bay in the Philippines and are due back in home port April 19.

Departmental estimates released today show the Nanaimo project is the biggest single item scheduled for the Vancouver Island area.

Other projects: Ganges harbor improvements $185,000, Halfmoon Bay wharf repairs $26,000, Kelsey Bay harbor improvements $190,000, Ladysmith public building, alterations and addition, $40,000; McVerns Landing harbor improvements $26,000; Tofino harbor improvements $50,000.

CHEMIST'S OPINION

Cattle Better Fed Than Their Owners

By NORMAN CRIBBENS

Cattle and livestock today are generally better fed than human beings.

This, says research chemist Dr. Leon J. Rubin from Toronto, is due to scientific progress in animal nutrition and the fact that animals cannot stuff themselves with the wrong things as so many humans do.

"Even if it wanted to, the steer cannot walk into a cafeteria and order two pieces of pie and a milkshake for lunch."

"Yet I see so many Canadians eating these fatty foods and always I want to tell them 'Please don't do it—you are heading for trouble!'"

GREAT PROGRESS
Dr. Rubin is one of 50 chemists employed in the research department of Canada Packers Ltd. Interviewed in Victoria today, he talked of "spectacular progress" in the development of animal feeds over the past 10 years.

"Only a few years ago," he said, "the poultry producer used four or more pounds of feed to produce one pound of meat. Today he can get a pound of meat for little more than two pounds of feed."

"The same trend applies to livestock. We have developed a feed for swine which cuts down inputs to three pounds for a pound of meat—and we've done much the same for cattle."

INTENSIVE STUDY
Dr. Rubin said animal nutrition is now being studied intensively by every agricultural college in Canada, and Canada Packers' research department is working with them.

Important healing products are also being obtained from the bodies of animals slaughtered by Canada Packers, and these are sold in bulk to pharmaceutical houses for resale to hospitals and retailers.

One is an anti-inflammatory agent produced from the pancreas glands of animals which dissolves bruising marks on the skin.

"This is a development of the old-fashioned beefsteak applied to a black eye," Dr. Rubin said. "For instance, a man in New York whose face had been beaten black and blue by thugs received injections of this glandular product."

"In less than a week all the bruise marks had disappeared."

BREAKS CLOTS
Another by-product, obtained from the liver of animals, is being used to disperse blood clots in human beings.

Dr. Rubin came to B.C. to attend a cattleman's conference in Kamloops, but has since visited several farms in the interior.

"We want farmers to realize that they must work hand in hand with research to obtain better and more economical food production. The benefits of this co-operation will be passed on to the consumer in quality production at lower cost."

MEET SATURDAY
The association executive will meet in Vancouver Saturday to discuss an appeal for better raises.

Mr. O'Connor said the executive will debate whether to appeal to the new board of reference for civil service disputes.

B.C. Civil Servants 'Very Disappointed' With Pay Increases

'Thousands Won't Get Any Pay Boost at All'

Immediate raises of from 3 to 9 per cent for about one half of the B.C. civil service were announced today. Eventually all civil servants will benefit from an increase in their maximum pay. There are 3,000 government employees in Victoria, many of them seniors, and most will be affected.

Dr. H. M. Morrison, chairman of the civil service commission, said one third of the 10,200 full-time civil servants will get raises April 1.

One third of the 4,000 temporary and casual employees will get similar boosts.

A further 3,000 government employees who get paid flat hourly rates, with no incremental categories, also get raises.

INCREASE FOR ALL

However, in its report to the government recommending the new salaries, the commission calls for an increase in all maximum categories.

The civil servants now getting their maximum will have to wait in some cases up to five years—before getting the raise.

In addition the government is raising pay in all categories of key health and welfare personnel.

Health and welfare employees who will get special raises, regardless of category, also ranging from 3 to 9 per cent, include:

Registered nurses, social workers, psychologists, public health nurses, x-ray technicians, druggists, dentists and physicians.

'DISAPPOINTING'
Immediate reaction of the B.C. Government Employees Association to the new salaries was one of disappointment and frustration.

"It is very disappointing," said E. P. O'Connor, BCGEA secretary.

"It is disappointing not only for the amount, but also for the principle."

The BCGEA sought raises now in all categories ranging from 5 to 20 per cent. Its demands would have cost the government about $1,000,000.

The actual raises approved will cost about $2,000,000. Premier Bennett allotted a total of $2,775,000 for pay boosts in his budget.

The board is chaired by B.C. Power Commission head, Dr. H. J. Keenleyside.

Mr. O'Connor said the pay increase amounted to an average 5 per cent.

"This confirms the fact that government employees are and will certainly be the lowest paid workers in their category in the province," he added.

"Thousands of government employees will get no increase at all."

"The only people who will benefit by this are those already in the top range. Those who have less than six or seven years' service will get nothing," he said.

Mr. O'Connor said this move ran completely against past practice of the Civil Service Commission.

He said the commission had also apparently abandoned its usual yardstick in granting raises—comparative surveys of workers outside the government.

As "a particularly glaring example" he cited the pay for hospital orderlies, who receive $60 more from hospitals than their colleagues directly employed by the government.

The increase for government orderlies is "a miserly 11," said Mr. O'Connor.

MANY SEE RESCUE OF GIRL

A crowd of more than 100 gathered at Oak Bay boat-house Sunday afternoon to watch a young girl rescued from the icy waters of the bay.

Two men put out from the boat-house in a cruiser when the girl was spotted swimming near Mary Todd Island.

By the time they got her back to shore Oak Bay fire department's emergency vehicle was on hand to rush her to Royal Jubilee Hospital.

The emergency vehicle and a police car had difficulty getting through a swarm of Sunday afternoon sightseers to get into and out of the boat-house parking lot.

The girl, 14 years old, was released from hospital after being treated for shock.

Oak Bay police said she apparently just walked into the water and disappeared.

Joint Raid Nabs Suspect In Drug Case

A man wanted by RCMP in connection with the recent roundup of suspected members of dope-peddling rings in Western Canada was arrested in Victoria Saturday night.

Edward Scoosky, 34, of Vancouver, was due to appear in court in Vancouver today charged with conspiracy to traffic in drugs.

A second arrest was made Saturday in Vancouver when Phillip Neil Jackson, 26, was taken into custody on a similar charge.

LAST TWO
RCMP say these are the last two arrests to be made in the giant roundup of suspects which started in Vancouver, Victoria and Calgary Jan. 9.

A total of 38 persons have been arrested. Victoria's tally is four.

Scoosky was picked up by Victoria RCMP, city police and Saanich police in a raid on a premises on lower Yates Street.

Spending
Forecast

OTTAWA (CP) — An increase in federal spending to record levels was indicated today as the government put before Parliament a basic program of $8,276,211,594 in budgetary expenditures for the coming fiscal year.

The blue book of spending estimates, tabled in the Commons by Finance Minister Fleming, is just a beginning for the 1962-63 year starting April 1.

Another $736,700,000 in estimated costs of the enlarged old age pensions program will boost the basic over-all spending forecast to $7,012,911,594. Supplementary outlays as the year progresses could add many millions to that.

BASIC PROGRAM

The basic budgetary spending program compares with one of $6,123,758,182 put before Parliament in January last year for the 1961-62 fiscal year. Old age pensions, not counted in budgetary expenditures, boosted this to $6,730,328,182 in total spending.

The increase of $282,583,412 in over-all spending would be much larger if it were not for the new Dominion-provincial tax deal this year which ends tax-rental payments to the provinces. The savings on this is an estimated $279,300,000.

Boost
For Coast
Shipyards

OTTAWA — British Columbia shipyards can anticipate something of a boom as a result of the federal government's proposed shipbuilding program.

Estimates for the coming fiscal year, tabled in the Commons today, show the department of transport intends construction of a wide variety of ships, and a number of the jobs will likely go to west coast yards.

One program calls for construction of eight coast guard cutters, two for each coast and two for the Great Lakes.

Cost of the eight vessels is estimated at $4,217,000, of which $2,205,000 will be spent in the coming fiscal year.

One of the biggest jobs will be construction of two replacement weather station ships for the west coast, replacing the Stonetown and St. Catharines.

Estimated total cost of the two ships is $18,000,000. An estimated $4,800,000 will be spent in the coming year.

In addition Royal Canadian Navy plans letting contracts for six destroyer escorts, of the repeat Restigouche class.

Each DE costs an estimated $22,000,000, excluding armaments.

West Rejects Red Bid
For Summit Arms Talk

WASHINGTON (UPI)

The United States and Britain appeared ready today to reject a proposal by Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev that the Geneva disarmament talks start out as an 18-nation heads-of-government conference.

But President Kennedy and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan seemed willing to MOSCOW (UPI) — Speculation mounted in western diplomatic circles here today that Premier Nikita Khrushchev may attend next month's scheduled 18-nation Geneva disarmament conference even if the West turns down his bid to hold the talks at the summit level.

responsibility of seeing that the disarmament conference does not fail.

The president and prime minister said the talks offer an "opportunity" and a "challenge" which time and history may not once again allow us.

"The disarmament discussions," they said, "must not be allowed to drift into failure."

But the outlook for a summit level discussion as proposed by Khrushchev diminished after British ambassador Sir David Gormsbey Gore conferred with Secretary of State Dean Rusk for 20 minutes today.

"I don't think it will be suitable that heads of government start this conversation (the Geneva disarmament conference)," Gore told newsmen.

"At a later stage, maybe," he said.

This paralleled what was expected to be the U.S. reaction. President Kennedy has publicly opposed premature summit talks which have not been preceded by diplomatic negotiations at lower levels.

There was speculation here the Allies would reject Khrushchev's proposal for a March 14 summit but indicate they might agree to a more limited heads-of-government meeting after foreign ministers have met in Geneva.

The long scheduled 18-nation Geneva disarmament conference is supposed to report to the United Nations by June 1. This would appear to indicate that if there were a summit get-together on disarmament it might be held before that date.

OTTAWA (CP) — Appointment of Charles Ritchie, a career diplomatic officer, as Canadian ambassador in Washington, was announced today in the Commons by Prime Minister Diefenbaker.

He will succeed A. D. P. Heeney, who served two tours there as Canadian ambassador in Washington.

Death Toll 20;
Drains Pop Open

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Southern California's sixth day of saturation started spectacularly today as cloudbursts opened up on parts of the Los Angeles area, creating lakes up to seven feet deep.

There were floods in the Hollywood Hills and one house was torn loose from its foundation and driven into the street.

A mud-slide loosened by the rain crashed into two homes, killing a nine-year-old boy and an infant. The slides were among hundreds on Southern California slopes during the weekend.

DAMAGE IN MILLIONS
Damage to property soared into the millions.

Storm drain covers popped open from excessive pressure in many parts of the city. At the intersection of Sunset Boulevard and Pacific Coast Highway this morning the water was seven feet deep.

It was four feet deep on Vermont Avenue between 88th and 90th Streets in Los Angeles. It covered the rooftops of automobiles at some other points.

HOLLYWOOD HIT
The police flood control office said all major streets in the Hollywood area were awash.

More than 20 deaths had been attributed to the storm, one of the heaviest in the area's history, before today's downpour.

Nearly eight inches of rain had fallen in Los Angeles since the storm started last Wednesday.

COLUMBIA
'Exports Not Issue' — Fulton

OTTAWA (CP) — The question of exporting Canadian hydro power is "quite distinct" from disposal of Canada's share of Columbia River under the treaty with the United States, Justice Minister Fulton said today.

Canada's national energy policy contemplates export of power including hydro "if it is genuinely surplus," he added. In fact, the National Energy Board approved nine hydro licences in 1961.

Mr. Fulton was replying in a statement to remarks attributed to Toronto economist Walter Gordon at Vancouver Saturday. (See page 3.)

Mr. Fulton said it was false to assume the government had a policy of no exports of hydro. It was incorrect to assume that the Columbia's "unique block of very low-cost power" from American generators was an export commodity.

By treaty terms, it was supposed to come back to Canada to serve Canadian needs. Mr. Fulton also accused Mr. Gordon of "several gross misrepresentations."

The U.S. would spend some $470,000,000 to utilize the full benefit of the Columbia development plan, Mr. Fulton said.

Canada would not have to spend $100,000,000 in transmission lines to get its share of American power because "the treaty obliges the U.S. to deliver our share of the power free of charge at the border."

The $458,000,000 cost of the initial Canadian program includes $344,000,000 for the three dams plus additional expenditure on transmission lines to get the power from the American border to its destination—or load centres.

With Canada's preferences in Britain threatened by Britain's negotiations to join the European Common Market, the report quotes "a leading Canadian economist" as predicting a Canada-U.S. merger "as the only way to escape a drastic reduction in the living standards for Canadians."

GANGSTER SUSPECT CHARGED

Toronto Policeman Slain

TORONTO (CP) — Ronald Turpin, 28, of Toronto, was charged with capital murder today after a policeman was killed by gunfire on an east end street.

Const. Fred Nash, 34, was shot at close range while making a routine check of a driver's licence. He was shot twice more as he lay wounded on the ground.

Turpin underwent an emergency operation after being shot in the arm and neck.

The shooting occurred as Const. Nash was checking an old panel truck. A second man in the truck escaped.

Nash, lying on the road, told lice cruiser blocked the tracks. "I saw a police officer in uniform," he said. "He was lying on the road and trying to get up. He tried twice, but he couldn't make it."

"I got out of the streetcar to help him. Then I saw this man with a gun."

"He pointed it at me and said: 'Get back in the streetcar or I'll kill you, too.'"

Wrycraft got back into his car. By this time another police cruiser arrived.

Wrycraft said: "The gunman was in the wounded officer's car trying to make it go."

Const. John McDonnell, who arrived in the second cruiser, drew his gun and arrested the gunman.

Sevigny Makes Apology For 'Communist' Remarks

(Times News Service)

OTTAWA — Associate Defence Minister Pierre Sevigny today apologized to the governments of Ecuador and British Guyana for calling them communists.

Sevigny said in the Commons he had been misinformed about the two governments
when he termed them communist during a speech last week in Montreal.

"I have since been satisfied that the government of those two countries are not communist," he said. "I am glad to correct my statement."

"I guess maybe I was a little out of line," he said.
Mr. Sevigny also said he wished to stress that in referring to the threat of Communism in Far Eastern countries he meant only the military threat posed by Communist China.

The 44-year-old minister appeared nervous and fidgeted with his prepared statement as he awaited an opportunity to rise and make the apology.
An informant said earlier today that Mr. Sevigny was questioned by Prime Minister Diefenbaker who was angered at Mr. Sevigny's references to the two countries as Communist-governed and to reports that Mr. Sevigny had said the "yellow peril" is one of the greatest threats to Western civilization.

It is understood that Mr.
Diefenbaker instructed him to make an apology.

There were also reports circulating that Ecuador was planning a formal protest to Canada, but these could not be substantiated.

Sevigny, in an address to a group of architects, had said last Thursday: "We see a Black Africa fired up by Communist propaganda, a South America where, in just the past six months, Communist governments have taken over British Guyana and Ecuador."

Sevigny, a Second World War hero who lost a leg in battle, is the cabinet's staunchest advocate of Canadian membership in the organization of American states.

'West Decaying, Doomed to Die'

PARKSVILLE — Western civilization is decaying and doomed to die, a University professor said here Saturday.
Dr. Barnett Savery, a professor of philosophy at the University of British Columbia, told an academic symposium the west's present optimism is not based on an analysis of the facts of life.

"Modern art and contemporary literature and music are manifestations of the decay of our civilization," he said.
Dr. Savery was presenting the pessimistic viewpoint in a discussion on the topic, "Where Is Man Heading?"

Dr. Suicho Kato, professor of Asian studies, said this pessimistic outlook was originated by German philosophers and is not found among intellectuals outside Europe.
"All people outside these areas have never been so full of hope," the professor said.

Centennial Flashback...

THIS DAY IN VICTORIA - 1862

FEBRUARY 12

Uneasy concern was rife throughout the town over the plight of nine residents of Port Townsend, believed shang-haied aboard the British ship True Briton. Reports from across the strait say the men, all highly-respected citizens, were lured aboard under the pretext of working the ship to Victoria, where they were to be paid off.

But it is believed the True Briton is heading direct for Honolulu, in the Sandwich Islands.

James A. McCrea was chosen treasurer of the fire department. He succeeds the late William Walls.

A rumor circulated about gold findings on a creek emptying into the ocean about 30 miles south of Cape
Flattery, but was not strong enough to start a gold rush.
